Of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES 10-R AND 88 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON, Editor

STUDY CLUB WITH MRS. GRIFFIN

Mrs. E. W. Griffin was hostess to the members of the Study Club and a number of invited guests on Wednesday afternoon at her home off West Mountain street. Bowls of lovely flowers in artistic arrangement were used in decoration.

Mrs. H. H. Houston was in charge of a most enjoyable program. Mrs. Pride Ratterree read an article on the School and the Nation, and Mrs. P. D. Herndon discussed the Pre-School Child. A piano solo by Mrs. N. F. McGill and a reading by Miss Sara Herndon were enjoyed. Following these numbers a humorous play let "Commencement at Pumpkin Center" was given.

Following the program a tempting and attractive salad and sweet course was served.

MISS HORD ENTERTAINS

On last Thursday evening Miss Dorothy Hord entertained a group of her friends at her home on Shelby road. Cards and dancing were enjoyed throughout the evening.

Delightful refreshments, consisting of punch, ice cream and cake, was served.

Those present were Misses Christine Fulton, Pat White, Adelaide Allen, Nina Jackson, Madge McDaniel, Lucille McGill, Helen Williams, Douglas Plonk, Lenora Fulton and Frances Hord; Messrs Sam Hamrick, Vernon Crosby, Clyde McSwain Haywood Allen, Fred Finger, Allan Herndon, Bobby Baker, O. T. Hayes Buck Allran, Grady Cansler, Theodore Thornburg, Jake Early and Martin Elkin.

D. A. R. AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. S. A. Lowery was hostess to the members of the Colonel Fredrick Hambright Chapter, D. A. R., at the Woman's Club for the regular meeting last week.

The lower floor of the club was made most inviting with an artistic arrangement of late summer flowers. Instead of the regular program, a resume of the past year's work was given by department chairmen and a list of things needed for Croonmore School were also given.

Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Communism chairman, gave an interesting paper on the subject.

During the social hour a salad and sweet course was served.

FALLS-BURGESS

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Falls of Kings Mountain announce the marriage of their daughter, Zoe Inez, to Mr. J. L. Burgess of Shelby, the wedding having taken place March 24.

Mrs. Burgess is an attractive blonde and was educated at Kings Mountain high school and later took nurse's training at Presbyterian hospital in Charlotte.

Mr. Burgess, formerly of Conway, is a graduate of Wake Forest college. He is now manager of the D. Pender grocery unit in Shelby. The couple will make their home in Shelby.—Cleveland Star.

HONORS BRIDE

Mrs. L. Gilbert Hord and Mrs. Jno

Williams were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday afternoon at the home of the former honoring their sister, Mrs. Floyd Thornburg, who was Miss Margaret Patterson prior to her marriage, Saturday, Sept. 7.

After several contests and games the hostesses, assisted by Miss Rosa Lee Patterson and Miss Ruth Putnam, served ice cream and cake. There were about 18 guests present. Mrs. Thornburg received many beautiful and useful gifts.

THORNBURG-PATTERSON

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Margaret Patterson to Mr. Floyd Thornburg, which took place at Gaffney, S. C., Sept. 7.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bun Patterson of Patterson Grove. Mr. Thornburg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thornburg also of Patterson Grove. The couple are now at home in their apartment in the Kiser house on West Mountain street.

YOUNG LADIES ORGANIZE

The "Gleaners" which became the official name of the newly organized young married ladies class of the First Baptist church, held its business and social meeting Monday night at the Coffee Shoppe with Mesdames Paul Cole and W. C. Cavany as hostesses.

Mrs. Harold Crawford had charge of a most interesting program, after which a delicious salad and sweet course was served.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET

The initial fall meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at the club Friday afternoon at 3:30 with the president, Mrs. F. E. Finger, presiding.

Matters of importance will be discussed and a good attendance is expected.

ADERDOLDT-ADAMS

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Pearl Aderholdt, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Aderholdt, to Mr. Herbert Adams, both of Kings Mountain.

The couple were married at York, S. C., Wednesday afternoon.
