BRIDES-ELECT HONORED

Miss Margaret Plonk and Miss Nellie Ormand, brides-elect of this month, were the inspiration of a lovely party given by Miss Virginia Parsons at her home on East King street.

The rooms were thrown en-suite and arranged with beautiful flowers. Bridge was played with Miss Helen Hay receiving prize for high score and Miss Nancy Hord for low score. Miss Margaret Plonk and Miss Nellie Ormand, the honorees, were each presented attractive gifts and Miss Elizabeth McGill, another June bride-elect was presented a gift.

Miss Parsons was assisted by her mother in serving a tempting salad and sweet course.

The guests included Misses Margaret Plonk, Nellie Ormand, Elizabeth McGill, Dorothy Patterson, Sara Hambricht, Mary Frances Hord, Helen Hay, G. Le Kiser, Mildred Moss, Sara Kate Ormand, Nancy Hord, Helen Ridenhour, Marian Patterson, Eva Plonk; Mesdames L. P. Stowe, Harold Hunnicutt, John Cavany, Joe Mauney, Ted Gamble, Aubrey Mauney, George Moss, Harold Crawford, W. J. Fulkerson and Mrs. Bill Hite, of Hemp.

JOLLY-GAULT

In a simple but impressive ceremony Tuesday evening, June 15th, Miss Virginia Helen Gault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gault, was united in marriage to Clyde M. Jolly, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jolly. The marriage was performed at the home of the bride's parents on Parker street, Rev. A. G. Sargeant, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Only members of the immediate families were present.

Prior to the ceremony, "Venetian Love Song" by Nevin, was played at the piano by Mrs. C. W. Blankenship, sister of the bride. The bride and groom entered together to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March and stood before the mantel-piece which was banked with mixed flowers and fern. The bride was lovely in a costume of navy and white. She wore a Queen Anne coat of navy taffeta and white accessories. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. The Wedding March from "The Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn was played as the recessional. After a bridal trip the young couple will be at their home on Casler street.

MISS VIRGINIA GAULT SHOWER HONOREE

Misses Elizabeth Gault and Lillie Mae Allen gave a miscellaneous shower at the home of the former on Parker street last Saturday afternoon, in honor of Miss Virginia Gault, whose marriage to Clyde M. Jolly took place June 15.

Several contests were enjoyed, after which ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses. The bride-elect was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts.

Those present were: Misses Virginia and Elizabeth Gault, Lillie Mae and Norma Allen, Annie Roberts, Nina Cole, Lois and Linda Houser, Pearl Jordan, Mildred and Maude Jolly, Nellie Gault, Maude and Geneva Owens.

Mesdames J. C. Jolly, C. L. Jolly, Clyde Blackwell, R. L. Border, C. J. Gault, Jr., B. H. Gault, C. J. Gault, C. W. Blankenship and Arthur Allen.

STUDY CLUB HAS INTERESTING PROGRAM

A most interesting meeting of the Study Club was held at the Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Griffin, as hostess.

The assembly room was made most inviting with bowls and baskets of lovely flowers.

Mrs. Harold Dwelle of Charlotte who formerly lived in Kings Mountain and Mrs. Marion Wright of the Observer Staff, in Charlotte were guests speakers. Mrs. Dwelle gave a talk on the Mint Museum, telling interestingly of the different rooms and the purpose served and Mrs. Wright talked on Southern Artists, with particular emphasis on those of North Carolina.

The Mauney twins, Miles and Ernest, delighted the audience with several musical numbers.

At the conclusion of the program the hostess served a delicious frozen salad with sandwiches and other accessories.

A large number of invited guests and club women were present.

BRIDE AND ROOK PARTY

Mrs. Harold Crawford was hostess to a number of her friends on last Tuesday evening when she entertained at bridge and rook.

Bowls of lovely flowers adorned the rooms which were thrown en-suite.

Following the game a tempting collation was served.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fulton have announced the marriage of their second daughter, Miss Christine Witherspoon Fulton to Mr. James A. Houser on Friday, June fourth. The marriage took place at the Presbyterian Manse, at York, S. C., with the pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating.

The bride was among the recent graduates of the Kings Mountain High School. She is a young woman of charm and pleasing personality. Mr. and Mrs. Houser have a large circle of friends among the younger set in Kings Mountain.

The young couple are at home with Mr. Houser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Houser on Piedmont Avenue.

DINNER GUESTS

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Boyce had a recent dinner guest, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Craft, of Gaffney, whose marriage took place late in May and Miss Elizabeth McGill and Mr. John Gamble whose marriage will be an event of the latter part of this month. The table was centered with a bowl of lovely flowers in blended shades. Lighted tapers completed the table appointment.

A four-course dinner was served. Mrs. Craft and Miss McGill were each presented attractive gifts by the hostess.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Houser, of Santa Cruz, California, announce the birth of a son on June 5th. Mr. Houser, a son of Mrs. M. L. Houser and the late M. L. Houser, of this place has been in California for several years.

MISS PLONK HONORED IN GASTONIA

Miss Margaret Plonk was honored at an informal tea given by a college class mate, Miss Jane Highsmith, at her home in Gaston's Tuesday afternoon from five to six o'clock. The guests included intimate friends of the honoree.

Receiving with Miss Highsmith were Miss Margaret Plonk and her mother, Mrs. Clarence Plonk. Miss Highsmith wore a becoming dress of gardenias. Miss Plonk was lovely in
