

Installation Services Held And Church Dedicated

Rev. B. F. Ormand, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ormand, Sr., of Kings Mountain, participated in installation and dedication services last Sunday, in the three churches of which he is pastor, at Loht City, West Virginia. According to the Moorefield Examiner, Moorefield, W. Va., county newspaper, Rev. Mr. Ormand was ordained and installed at the Wardensville Prebyterian church at the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning with Dr. C. D. Gilkeson, of Winchester, Vir., presiding.

The installation service took place at Ivanhoe Prebyterian church at the 7:00 o'clock service, with Rev. V. W. Hogshead, of Petersburg, Vir., presiding.

On Sunday afternoon Pine Ridge Prebyterian church was dedicated with impressive ceremony. The erection of this church was begun by a former pastor, Rev. Bernard Bain and completed since Rev. Mr. Ormand's pastorate.

These special services were all attended by large congregations and the young preacher is being highly commended for his splendid work in the three congregations and for his success in the completion of Pine Ridge church edifice.

Rev. Mr. Ormand is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and of Davidson College, later studying for three years at the Prebyterian Theological School at Richmond, Va. where he was prepared for his chosen profession.

He has many friends and relatives in Kings Mountain and vicinity who are deeply interested in his work in West Virginia. Mrs. B. F. Ormand, Sr., of Kings Mountain, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Ormand of Gastonia went to Lost City last week where they visited her son and attended the Sunday services, returning home Tuesday night.

INFANT DIES

Thomas Sipe, six-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sipe, of Kings Mountain died Monday night at the Prebyterian Hospital, Charlotte, where he had been carried for treatment for colic.

Funeral services were held at St. Luke's Lutheran church, Wednesday morning at 10:00 o'clock with Rev. L. Boyd Hamm, the pastor in charge. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sipe, and a little sister aged three years.

WORLD WAR VETERAN DIES

M. Cleve McClure, World War veteran, age 49, died in the Mauney Mill village Saturday night following a stroke of paralysis.

Funeral services and burial took place at Rock Hill, S. C., Monday.

Mr. McClure had been in failing health for some time.

He is survived by his widow, two children, a son, age 14 and daughter, age 9. Six step-children survive.

He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Anderson Ross, of the Phenix Mill Village, No. Two.

Popular Magazine Features Cover Page Picture of Local Interest

The bright-faced little girl pictured on the cover page of the November Pictorial Review and Delin-eator combined, is a niece of Mrs. H. R. Parton of Kings Mountain. She is Betty Woody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Woody, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. Woody is a brother of Mrs. Parton and native of this State.

The picture is a full-color photograph by Anton Bruehl, of Cincinnati.

Dr. J. S. Norman To Locate In Gastonia

The following announcement in a recent issue of the Gastonia Gazette will be of interest to the friends of Dr. J. S. Norman and family who lived in Kings Mountain for some time before going to Hickory and also to friends of the late Dr. J. S. Hood and family:

Dr. J. S. Norman, prominent Hickory specialist has purchased the complete equipment and fixtures of the Hood clinic, operated by the late Dr. J. Sidney Hood, and will practice in the Gastonia field, beginning Monday.

Dr. Norman was a general practitioner for two years in Kings Mountain prior to his location in Hickory.

Say, "I saw it in The Herald."
Thank

PHONE 167 FOR JOB PRINTING

LAST DAY . . .
Tomorrow
OCTOBER 15th

Is the last day to pay your Water and Light Bill.

Pay now, and save having your service discontinued, as a charge is made for connection of service.

TOWN OF KINGS MOUNTAIN

Before You Buy
PRINTING
From A Peddler
GIVE US A CHANCE

The skip-in and skip-away salesman for outside printing plants promises you a lot . . . and gets your order . . . then send you what may be O. K. or may not be.

You fall for the "low-price" talk but often get inferior stock, standardized forms, no proof and delivery when he has secured a volume job lot.

WE SELL YOU QUALITY MERCHANDISE, show you the stock, furnish proofs, make any and all changes you require, carry you on the books like friends, often "scratch your back" in a generous reciprocal manner . . . and always strive to PLEASE YOU from start to finish.

We invite you to compare prices and quality of work.

Herald Publishing House
QUALITY PRINTING PHONE 167