Four Rules To Make Livestock Pay

Low cotton prices are making many Southern farmers realize the need for more dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep, and poultry. But while livestock well managed will make money, poorly managed livestock may easily mean loss instead of profit. One of the South's foremost authorities on livestock, Dr. Tait Butler, writing in the Progressive Farmer after 40 years of close observation, lists these four rules for success with animals:—

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of trust made by F. N. Berry and wife, Frances Berry, to me on the 8th day of July, 1937, and registered in Cleveland County, in Book 215, page 307, I will on Monday the 29th day of November, 1937, at 12 o'clock, Noon, or within legal hours, at the Court House Door in Shelby, N. C., sell to the highest bidder for cash, the land conveyed by said deed of trust, which is described as follows: Situate in the town of Kings Mountain, N. C., and being a part of the L. A. Kiser 17 acre tract, and being lots 88, 89, and 90, fronting on the West side of Keller street, as will appear on a map of said property made by E. L. Campbell, surveyor, and which is duly registered in the office of the Register of Deeds for Cleveland County.

This the 27th day of October, 1937.
A. H. Patterson, Trustee.
