MISSIONARY SOCIETY IN SPECIAL MEETING

The Woman's Missionary Society of Central Methodist church, held their annual Harvest Day meeting at the home of Mrs. Lester Hoke, on Gold street, with a large number in attendance.

Mrs. J. O. Plonk, the president, presided.

Gratifying reports of the past year's work were made by circle leaders. Mrs. Plonk was again elected president and the following circle leaders were named: Mrs. Lester Hoke, Circle No. One; Mrs. M. L. Houser, Circle No. Two; Mrs. C. W. Harper, Circle No. Three.

In keeping with the Yuletide spirit members of the Society placed gifts for the needy under the beautiful Christmas tree, which with other Christmas decorations and lighted candles, gave a festive air to the occasion.

Christmas carols were sung and a duet, "Silent Night," by Mrs. M. H. Biser and Mrs. Y. W. Throneberg. A tempting salad course with accessories was served at the conclusion of the business meeting.

MEETING OF ERSKINE ALUMNAE

Mrs. J. E. Anthony and Miss Elizabeth Anthony entertained members of the Erskine Alumnae organization at their home on Piedmont Avenue, Monday evening.

A lovely Christmas tree and other decorations suggestive of the Yuletide season were arranged in the living room and hall.

Mrs. W. S. Fulton had charge of a short Christmas program which consisted of carol singing by all and Christmas poems by Miss Elizabeth Anthony. The members then enjoyed an exchange of Christmas gifts.

A tempting salad course with Russian tea was served.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT PINE KNOT

Mrs. Bill Thomson entertained members of her bridge club at Pine Knot on Tuesday evening.

Decorations of poinsettias, holly and pine boughs with lights furnished by red candles, a lighted Christmas tree and the cheerful glow from the high log fire provided a setting suggestive of the Yuletide season.

The tables were centered with red candles with holly decorations. The Christmas motif prevailed in the refreshments which were served on arrival of the guests.

When scores were counted, Miss Margaret Smith was presented the prize.

Those present included: Misses Helen Hay, Mildred Moss, Margaret Smith, Sara Kate Ormond, Helen Ridenhour, Pauline Neisler, Sara Flinger, Mary Mitchell; Mesdames Harry Page, Frank Richards, Howard Jackson, Coman Falls and Bill Thomson.

Personals

Misses Sara Bass and Elizabeth Betha of Latta, S. C., were weekend guests of Miss Betty Patrick.

Drace Peeler, student at State College, Raleigh, is at home for the holidays.

Mr. S. A. Cypuse has been very sick for the past week at his home in Kings Mountain.

Forest Sipe underwent an operation last week in a hospital at Johnson City, Tenn., where he has been a patient for the past three weeks.

Miss Lenora Fulton and Billy Fulton, students at Erskine College Due West, S. C., are expected home for the holidays, Friday.

Mr. W. F. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Logan, attended the funeral of Mrs. Logan's father, Mr. Carlson Hedrick, at Clover, last Friday.

Mr. Arnold Kiser is recuperating from an appendix operation in the Lincoln Hospital. Mr. Kiser had an acute attack Saturday night.

Little Iris Patterson has been very sick with whooping cough and complications, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Patterson, on Gold street.

Miss Mary Jane Logan, student at Appalachian Teachers Training School at Boone, will arrive Saturday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Logan.

Mrs. H. R. Parton, who has been a patient at the Elkin Hospital, underwent a serious operation Monday and according to reports, her condition is satisfactory.

According to a front page announcement in the Lenoir-Rhynean, College publication, W. K. Mauney, Jr., was recently elected the wittiest boy in the Senior Class.

Organization of the Freshman Y. W. C. A. Council has been affected at Woman's College of Greensboro, with a membership of about 70 girls. The new Council will take care of all Freshman events scheduled by the Y. W. C. A. Members include Virginia Plonk of Kings Mountain.

The CHRISTMAS HARVEST

By ALSON SECOR
in Successful Farming

OLD SANTA CLAUS—

Some don't believe in him because He makes them spend.
They like to borrow, but never lend
That Christmas cheer
Which permeates this time of year.

They are tight-fisted cynics, these.
They never know how presents please
The little kids, and others;
The sisters and the brothers;
The care-worn dads and weary mothers.

They never learned to live
Because they never learned to give.
You've got to plant before you reap.
If all you get you keep
Your soul gets barren, sterile, sour,
It takes the power
Of cheerful giving
To give a zest to living.
