PHONES 10-R AND 88 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON, Editor

MALCOLM-ALLEN

In a simple but beautiful ceremony, the marriage of Miss Frances Allen and Mr. James Thomas Malcolm, took place Saturday, January 1st, at high noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Allen, on Railroad Avenue.

Rev. Rush Padgett, of Lattimore, was the officiating minister and the ring ceremony was used.

The couple entered the living room together to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. Rush Padgett, Jr., of Lattimore. There were no attendants.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip and are now at home at Panteago, N. C.

The bride wore a becoming du-bonnet model with gray squirrel collar and gray accessories.

Mrs. Malcolm is an attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Allen. She received her education at Kings Mountain High School and Bowling Springs College.

The bridegroom is an adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gibbs of Panteago and also attended school at Bowling Springs College.

Among out-of-town people at the wedding were Mrs. R. L. Gibbs and Miss Gertrude Malcolm, of Panteago; Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Moore, Mr. Marshall Moore, Mrs. John Tucker, Mrs. Bailey Mauney and Mr. Robert Lee, all of Shelby; Mr. and Mrs. Rush Padgett, Jr., of Lattimore.

PARTY FOR YOUNGER SET

Miss Marjory Rhea entertained a few members of the Senior Class, of the Kings Mountain High School, at a buffet supper at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Rhea, West Mountain street, on New Years Eve.

"MY FINEST TOBACCO!"

I HAD THE DANDIEST TOBACCO CROP EVER. THE CAMEL PEOPLE PAID ME THE BIGGEST PRICE I EVER GOT FOR THE BEST OF IT. SO I KNOW THEY USE COSTLIER TOBACCOS FOR CAMELS. I SMOKE 'EM MYSELF. THEY'RE THE LEADING CIGARETTE DOWN IN OUR SECTION

WHAT cigarette do the tobacco growers smoke? Roy Jones knows that Camel is the favorite with planters. They know Camels are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic.
