

TEST, TEST AND TEST

AMERICAN industry, according to Consumers Information, surpasses that of any other country in its exact methods of testing products and so assuring maximum performance before passing them on to the user. One company reports, for instance, that 25% of its labor and cost of production goes into testing. Above are shown tests of two of the 600 different operations which go into the manufacture of their vacuum cleaners. The young lady is balancing the fan, an intricate job in which she puts tiny drops of solder on the light side until the balance is perfect. Inset, operator testing air passage, suction power and wattage, on a government test-block.

Extra Curricular Students In Local Schools

(By Dorothy Hoke)

Readings, essays, declamations, and debates are very important in our schools today. Each year the students are given an opportunity to show their ability in these extra-curricular activities.

Colleen Campbell, who was chosen as representative of the Kings Mountain High School in the Keesler Memorial Essay Contest held at Central School, won first place in the county contest held at Shelby. She will represent the county in the contest which will be held at the district meeting of the Building & Loan League, March 31.

The High School Declamation and Reading Contests were held in the West School auditorium Thursday night, March 3rd. The winner of the Pearl Fulton Memorial Reading Contest was Elizabeth Plonk, who read "Rosalie." The winner of the declamation medal given by Mrs. J. G. Hord in memory of Dr. J. G. Hord was Ladd Hamrick, Jr. The title of his declamation is "President Roosevelt's Jackson Day Address." Those entering the Reading Contest were Elizabeth Plonk, Thelma Yelton, Marjorie Rhea, Frances Stewart, Evelyn Owens, Mildred Williams and Vera Sargeant. The Contestants in the declamation contest were Ladd Hamrick, Jr., Jack Lynn, Charles Thomasson, Jr., Fred Wright, Jr., and Talmadge Frederick.

The subject for the triangular debates this year is: "Resolved, That the several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislature. Mary Frances Ligon and Faye Penland are speaking on the negative side; and Mary Julia Pollock and A. B. Falls are speaking on the affirmative side. These students making the debating team will be given a medal for their work.

The students who are entering these contests are working hard, and we feel that they will win the medals for Kings Mountain High School as others have done in previous years.

Last year Kings Mountain received her full share of honors in the forensic contests. Mary Helen Hambrick won the Pearl Fulton Memorial Reading Contest, the County Reading Contest and the District Contest in the reading of poetry. Richard Esker won the Hord Declamation Contest and the Hoey Contest. Pauline Goforth won the District Reading Contest and Edgar Cooper won the District Oratorical Contest. Edgar Cooper and Nina Putnam also succeeded in defeating the Rutherfordton debaters.
