

Mountaineers Win 22-0; Shelby Next

TANGLE WITH LIONS FRIDAY

Last Friday the Mountaineers hit the come-back trail, and avenged themselves by defeating Cliffside 22 to 0 in a game featured by ineffective passing on the part of both teams. Although the Mountaineers' offensive game was not up to par, their defensive line was impenetrable, and the visitors did not make any dangerous threats.

Gibson, Mountaineer back, was the real backfield star of the tilt, crashing the line for at least three of the eight firsts that the Mountaineers gained, and also making several beautiful tackles. Morrison, left half, shared honors with Gibson. In the Mountaineer line Bennett and Harper were the stars. Shuford and Hamrick were Cliffside's stellar backs with Rollins and Hamrick taking the honors.

Patrick and Ratterree, two Mountaineer ends, at guard and center respectively, played nice football, and held the line balance after Boon McDaniel was forced to leave the game during the first period due to an ankle injury.

One of the Mountaineer's touchdowns came as the result of a bad pass from the Cliffside center, who tossed the ball thirty yards down the field on a punt formation.

This week the Locals tangle with Shelby in what promises to be the hardest fought tilt of the year for both teams. The annual battle of the "arch enemies of Cleveland" always is the biggest game of the year both teams, and this year finds no favorite. Last week the Shelby boys held the Gastonia Green Wave to a sixall tie and so finds them confident that they can take the Mountaineers. However, the Mountaineers, confident from last week's victory, will prove no easy pickings and are favored by many to win Friday's game.

Attend Lecture At Mint Museum Of Art

The following from Kings Mountain were among the large number attending the lecture by Miss Emma Hopkins of New York City at the Mint Museum of Art, in Charlotte, last Wednesday: Mesdames W. E. Manner, D. C. Manner, Mrs. Neisler, Ladd Hamrick, Paul Mauney, M. A. Ware, H. T. Fulton, Sr., E. W. Griffin, R. H. Webb, and Miss Sara Hambricht.

The party also attended the tea given in honor of Miss Hopkins, following the lecture.

In Budapest, Hungary, you pay a fare, usually about two cents, to go up in an elevator in the fine modern apartments; the fare doubles after midnight. Most folks ride up and walk down.

RAMBLIN' IN SPORTS

Last week we predicted that the Mountaineers would take Cliffside, which they did. However, along with that prediction, we made another which some folks now think rash. We said that if they defeated Cliffside they could best Shelby. That was before Shelby tangled with Gastonia and tied them, which raised the Lions considerably in our estimation, as it did with almost every one in these parts. Now we're in a predicament, as you can plainly see. The Lions are growling ferociously for Mountaineer blood. However, the Mountaineers have their ammunition in battle array for Friday's scrap, and all we can say is that whichever team wins will have a hard road to travel to victory.

Friday's battle will be the biggest of the year for both teams. The "arch enemies of Cleveland" always put on their best show against each other, and it goes without saying that everyone of these 22 boys will be fighting their hardest. We'll flip a coin and hold our breath, even tho, we do believe that the Mountaineers will win.

For three years we've stood by and felt very self-satisfied with $25 and $50 gate receipts. Last week it jumped to nearly $100. We thought that was swell until Chas. Moss and Sam Suber came along with tales of $200 and $300 gates back in the good ole days of '26 and '27. Now we're expecting (and predicting) $150 for Friday. Or will Shelby recall send us 500 fans as Sam says they will?

We wonder if Fred Finger picks Duke this week? If he does he'll probably be the only one. The wise ones are keeping Q. T. on that one tho they give Duke a slight edge. This is due to previous games; but after that Tech-Notre Dame game last week yours truly will flip a coin.
