CELEBRATION OF GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Sumpter C. Ratterree, the latter before marriage, Miss Carrie Herndon, entertained a number of their friends and relatives at a reception given at their home on West Mountain street Monday evening, in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary. The wedding took place in Bethlehem Baptist church, December 5th, 1888, at 7:30 o'clock. The guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Herndon and introduced to the receiving line by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Thomason.

The receiving line was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Sumpter C. Ratterree, the latter wearing a handsome dinner gown of black lace over black taffeta with shoulder corsage of yellow rosebuds; Mrs. Boyce Wolf, sister of Mr. Ratterree, dressed in wine colored lace over wine-colored satin with floral ornament shaded from red to wine; Mrs. Hattie Harrill of Shelby, wearing garnet velvet; Mrs. Ben Logan in garnet velvet; Mrs. L. M. Logan in white lace over satin; Mrs. Pratt Herndon, sister-in-law of Mrs. Ratterree, wearing black crepe; Miss Mary Whisnant, niece of Mrs. Ratterree or Blacksburg, S. C., wearing a gown of black lile over satin; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Plonk of Bessemer City. Mr. Plonk's late father was a groomsmen at the Ratterree wedding.

Mrs. Weir and Mrs. Harrill were bridesmaids at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Ratterree; Mrs. Ben Logan, a niece by marriage of Mrs. Ratterree, was married in the same church 12 years after the Ratterree wedding and Mrs. L. M. Logan, another niece, by marriage was also married in Bethlehem church 13 years later.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Keeter directed the guests to the gift room where many lovely gifts of gold, brass, crystal, linens, etc., were on display.

The register was kept by Mrs. J. M. Patterson and Mrs. J. N. Gamble. Mrs. E. W. Neal and Mrs. J. T. Whisnant of Blacksburg, S. C., served refreshing fruit punch.

Mr. and Mrs. BHI Souther directed the guests to the dining room where Mrs. Pride Ratterree and Mrs. R. G. Plonk received. Ice cream and individual cakes was served by Misses Margaret Ratterree, Mary Helen Hambricht, Maude Plonk and Colleen Campbell.

The dining table had for its centerpiece a lovely bowl of yellow snap dragons, yellow daisies and fern, the same color note being attractively observed in the refreshments.

The favors were confections wrapped in gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Pright Ratterree bade the guests goodbye. Included among the guests at the reception were several who attended the wedding and also attended the dance at Mountain View Hotel, given in honor of the couple following the wedding.

Of the four bridesmaids who took part in the wedding, three are living. Mr. Ratterree is the only male member of the wedding party, who survives.

The couple have many friends in this and other section of the county and have received many messages of congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Ratterree have been blessed with three sons, one of whom, James Ratterree, died as a young man while in Camp Sevier, during the World War. The other sons, Pride and Pright, live with their families in Kings Mountain, near the home of their parents.
