Fellowship Group Presents Play

The Fellowship Group of the First Presbyterian Church will present as a worship service, a one act play, "Why the Chimes Rang," by Elizabeth Aphorpe McFadden on Friday, December 23, at 8:00 o'clock.

The play was adapted from the story by A. M. Alden and originated in the Workshop of Radcliff College and has been produced more than 100 times in England, Hawaii and Japan.

"Why the Chimes Rang" owes its popularity not only to the Christmas message it brings, but also to the unusual lighting effects and its exquisite music. The cast for the play is as follows:

Holger, a peasant boy, George Thomasson.

Steen, his younger brother, Charles Blanton.

Bertel, their uncle, Jack Ormand. An old woman who depicts the spirit of Christ, Mrs. Grady McCarter.

Priest, Jim Page. Rich Man, Grady Cansler. King, Vernon Crosby. Courtier, Thomas Roberts.

Beautiful Woman, Gaynelle Parrish. Old Man, James Houser. Young Girl, Mrs. Sam Weir. Angel, Barbara Summitt.

The public is cordially invited to attend the play.
