CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors who had a part in helping to get our home back which was destroyed by fire, Nov. 29, 1938. May God's richest blessings rest upon each and every one of you.
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lynn.

I usually had it embarrassing to mention, publicly, my domestic duties, necessitated by the fact that at present there are only two men in the house but I must admit that when I heard the announcer say that Ruffa had made the field goal in the Rose Bowl game, I just naturally threw down my dish cloth and yelled "whoopie" as loud as my lungs permitted. It was a stirring moment, and I imagine that there were many thousands just as excited as I was. And that last minute, when Krueger was doing that magnificent pass snatching was even more so. It was a great game, and even tho' Duke lost, we must say that both teams were magnificent. (Pardon our over-use of magnificent, but I can't think of other adjectives at present.)

She's devastatingly beautiful; she's exotic; she's . . . well, every thing that he thought it possible to be. Who? Why who else could we mean but that new cinema star, Hedy Lamarr.

Of course there are several other female foreigners in Hollywood who are grand, and when they brought Simone Simone to our country, we thought there couldn't possibly be any more left in Europe. But here comes this latest and greatest of them all. She hasn't been heard of so much yet, but brother (or sister) she will.

Somebody read our column last week! They must have, because they told us Sunday night where we could find some live fish. And another person said something about the "woodpecker in the petrified forest" crack being cute. Sorry that wasn't original, but we're not the best in the world at making up similes. But thanks for the kind words.

Will somebody please go to the public library and get a book called "Until I Find" and read it? That book has been in the library for months and months and I am the only person who has taken it out. I'll guarantee you several hours of genuine pleasure. It is really GOOD literature, and at the present rate, it's being wasted in this town.

After you read that aforementioned book, come and tell me how bad it was. But please, somebody, read that book!
