PHONES 10-R AND 88 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON, Editor

OUTING AT PALM HARBOR

A number of Kings Mountain people who are wintering at Palm Harbor, Florida, enjoyed an outing at a beautiful spot near there. The location was a place of natural beauty and the group gave it the name "Hidden Glen."

An out-door supper was cooked and enjoyed by the following: Mesdames C. E. Neisler, Fleming Ramseur, H. T. Fulton, D. C. Mauney, J. F. Allison, J. B. Thomasson, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Ware, all of Kings Mountain; Mrs. George Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Williams of Gastonia; Mr. and Mrs. Jong Lang, Miss Bettie Lang, Mr. and Mrs. Delamater and son, Hugh, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Willeford all of Kings Mountain. Miles Boyd (col) of Kings Mountain was also with the party.

BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. Charles Dilling was hostess to her bridge club last Tuesday, entertaining at her home on King Street.

The rooms were arranged with spring flowers.

A tempting salad course with accessories was served. Those playing included Mesdames Hayne Blackmer, Joe Neisler, Geo. Lattimore, Hunter (Neisler), Ed Smith, Paul Neisler, Arnold Kiser, and the hostess.

CIRCLE MEETING

The March meeting of Circle number Three of Central Methodist Church was held at the home of Mrs. B. M. Ormand on Monday afternoon with Mrs. Troy Carpenter as joint hostess.

Mrs. Charles Goforth, the leader, presided and Mrs. M. H. Riser had charge of the devotional. The Bible Study was led by Mrs. Troy Carpenter. Thirteen members responded to roll call. The hostesses served delicious refreshments.

ENTERTAIN OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Mrs. Joe Neisler, Mrs. F. E. Finger and Mrs. W. A. Ridenhour were hostesses at a spend-the-day party entertaining at the home of the former on last Thursday.

Lovely spring flowers were used in decorations throughout the rooms.

A well-appointed luncheon was served buffet style.

Rook and bridge provided amusement. The guests included the following out-of-town relatives, Mesdames M. L. Mauney and Robert Morrison of Hickory; Mesdames S. S. Mauney, D. R. Mauney, Julia Hall, David Russell and D. P. McClurd of Cherryville.

BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. George Lattimore was hostess to members of her bridge club on Tuesday afternoon, entertaining at her home on West Mountain street on Tuesday afternoon.

Lovely spring flowers were effectively arranged in decoration.

Those playing included Mesdames Charles Dilling, Joe Neisler, E. A. Smith, Jr., Arnold Kiser, Paul Neisler, Hayne Blackmer, Hunter Neisler and the hostess.

A tempting salad course and sweet course was served.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Saunders of Greensboro were visitors in Kings Mountain during the week end.

Mrs. Ira H. Patterson has been very sick at her home in Kings Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Cephus Chippard of Charlotte were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cooper.

ACHING COLDS

Relieve Their DISTRESS
This Easy, Quick Way!

To bring speedy relief from the discomfort of chest colds, muscular rheumatic aches and pains due to colds—you need more than "just a salve"—use a stimulating "counter-irritant" like good old warming, soothing Musterole. It penetrates the surface skin breaking up local congestion and pain resulting from colds. Even better than a mustard plaster—Musterole has been used by millions for over 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. In three strengths: Regular, Children's (mild) and Extra Strong. 40¢. Approved by Good House-keeping Bureau. All druggists.
