Patterson Grove Section The only excuse I in offer for not writing this column ist week is that I could not think of anything to write about.

We enjoyed the contest in And There immensely, and will be looking forward to another one soon. No, this column wasn't supposed to be a puzzle week hard a puzzle week before last, it just got mixed up and was printed Rumor has it that the "Northern Lights" could be seen a couple weeks ago. We were not lucky nough to have seen them, but my informant said they were seen about 11:00 o'clock one night and were visible for a long time.

Glad to see a new column appear in the paper. I don't believe the writers are new though. They sound sorta like the "Tattlers." (What ever take his place until Conference became of K. M. and H. S.?) Good luck to the writer or writers of Four
