MCGILL-COOKSEY MARRIAGE SOLEMNIZED SATURDAY

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Cooksey of Blacksburg, S. C. and Mr. Earl McGill of Kings Mountain, was solemnized at the home of the bride on Saturday evening, August 23, at 6:30 o'clock. Rev. W. N. Long, of Clinton, S. C. former pastor of the bride officiated. The immediate families of the couple and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony.

The vows were spoken in the living room where an improvised altar was arranged, banked with ferns, ivy, clematis and gladioli flanked by seven branched candelabra, holding lit tapers.

Miss Sara Cooksey, sister of the bride, wearing romance blue, fashioned on quaint lines with shoulder corsage of pink roses, played the wedding music. While the bride and groom were being pronounced man and wife by Miss Martha Frances McGill, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Augusta Scott, of Blacksburg, S. C. each wearing becoming dresses of black net with corsages of white roses. Prior to the ceremony, Miss Mary Elizabeth Meacham of Blacksburg sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me". Miss Meacham wore a lovely dress of black crepe with satin panels. Her flowers were red roses.

The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used as a processional and during the ceremony Traumerel was softly played.

The bride was attractively attired in a modish early fall costume of port brown, with brown accessories and shoulder spray of tulleman roses and valley lilies.

The bride, a daughter of Mrs. R. S. Cooksey of Blacksburg, S. C. and the late Mr. Cooksey, is a young woman of charm and pleasing personality. She is a graduate of Winthrop College and for some time has been a member of the Park Grace School faculty.

Mr. McGill is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. McGill of Kings Mountain and holds a position with the Kings Mountain Cotton Oil Co.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip and are now at home at the residence of Miss Ella Harmon on King street.

Gain In Sunday School Attendance

The "Back to Sunday School Movement" got under way with full swing last Sunday. Nearly all Sunday Schools reporting had a considerable increase in attendance. Of those reporting the First Baptist church led with an increase of 42, and the Central Methodist church ran a close second with an increase of 41. The Grace Methodist church had an increase of 27, the Lutheran church 25, the Presbyterian church 16, and the Second Baptist, 13.

The entire month of September has been set apart for new members closing the campaign the first Sunday in October with a rally and promotion day in all churches. It is hoped to have every child enrolled in our High School and Grammar Schools in attendance in some Sunday School in Kings Mountain by the first Sunday in October. If you know of any child in Kings Mountain, please notify the Sunday School Superintendent of the Sunday School which the child would most likely wish to go to.

We hope to increase the enrollment of all Sunday Schools at least ONE THOUSAND before the first Sunday in October. This can easily be done with the full cooperation of all Churches in this movement.

REV. E. W. FOX ABLE TO FILL PULPIT AGAIN

The congregation of Central Methodist Church and the many friends of Rev. E. W. Fox were overjoyed last Sunday by the presence of Mr. Fox at church.

Mr. Fox, who has been ill for the past several weeks is back at the parsonage and in fine condition again after being confined to a hospital room and a long period of convalescence during which his pulpit was filled by Rev. Waggoner, supply minister from Duke University.

Phenix Booster Club Goes On Vacation

"All work and no play makes Jack

a dull boy, decided the Phenix Booster Club recently, so they had themselves off to a short vacation at Ocean View Beach, Norfolk, Va. Forty seven persons made the trip, taking a "private" car from Kings Mountain, registering at the Nansau Hotel, and proceeded to enjoy themselves for a couple days and so many nights. While at the beach the party took a sight seeing boat trip, besides swimming and enjoying other recreational activities.

The Booster Club, one of several employee organizations in Kings Mountain, has become a leader in activities which pave the way for better understanding between employer and employee.

C. G. White, superintendent of the Phenix Mills and president of the Club accompanied the group. Ladd W. Hamrick, an official of the mill, and his son, Ladd, Jr., also made the trip.

Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The art of living is to have the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging headache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out. Frequent, scanty or burning passage may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval.
