TOM AND GEORGE

George: "Tom what was the lastest man you ever heard of and what makes you think at?" Tom: "It was a fellow who drove a 1921 Flivver up. It would jar the ashes off his cigarette." Well, that's some lazy. No one ever got anywhere in business by waiting for something to turn up; we don't try putting things off, we're trying our best to put them over.

Patterson Grove Section

Friends of Miss Audrey Bridges will be glad to hear that she is improving nicely at her home since returning from the Garrison Hospital, Gastonia, where she underwent an appendix operation recently.

The J. W. Carrolls had a family reunion Sunday, Sept. 17. The event honored Mrs. Sidney Mason and daughter, Barbara Jane, of Ware Shoals, S. C. who spent the week end here.

The dinner was served, picnic style, in the yard.

The Carrolls have thirteen living children, eight of who are married and there's a number of grandchildren, so you can imagine what a crowd there is when they all get together. Others besides members of the immediate family present were: Mr. J. K. Goforth, Mrs. Carroll's father; and Mrs. William Patterson, mother of Mrs. J. C. Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Green of Phenix Mills were visitors in this community Sunday.

Fair Week, the week of weeks, has arrived and most of the folks we know are planning to spend at least one day at the fair. Several visited the fairground Sunday.

All the farmers are busy picking cotton. It seems to be unusually hard to hire cotton pickers this year. Maybe its because fifty cents seems a small amount to be paid for picking a hundred pounds of cotton. It is small but the farmers can't afford to pay any more when the price of cotton is so low.

Speaking of low, the news supply for this column is low this week so will just say good bye.
