Mrs. Lee Bell Buried At Oak Grove Church

Funeral services for Mrs. Lee Bell were held at the Oak Grove Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Boich, pastor of the Marietta street church in Gastonia, was in charge of the service in the absence of the local pastor, who was ill.

Mrs. Bell was 63 years of age on her last birthday. She has a host of friends and many relatives in the county, being a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ledford. She joined the Baptist church in 1899. Although she had been an invalid for many years and had been seriously ill for the past two months, she bore her suffering with cheerfulness and fortitude, and will be greatly missed.

Besides her husband, she leaves the following children: Mrs. Hunter Ware, Lawrence Austm and Ralph Bell all of this community; Mr. Burley Williams of Cherryville; Mr. L. E. Dobbins of Bessemer City and 19 grandchildren.

Three children preceded her to the grave. Brothers and sisters who survive are: Messrs Tilden and Zolne Ledford, Mrs. T. R. Bell, Mrs. Joe Lovelace, Mrs. Rufus Saunders, all of the county.

6 "EXTRA" HELPS quickly relieve DISTRESS of CHILDREN'S COUGHS DUE TO COLDS

DON'T "take chances" with unknown products to relieve discomfort of your child's spasmodic croupy coughs caused by colds. Use "Children's" Musterole! Musterole gives such QUICK relief because it's not "just an ordinary salve." Rub it well on your kiddie's chest, throat and back. It soothes and stimulates surface circulation and helps break up local congestion and pain. Its soothing vapors ease breathing. 40¢. Approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau.

Aged Man Passes

Mr. Leroy Adams McGill, age 89 years, passed away Saturday, February 3, at the home of his son, Dr. W. J. McGill, on the Kings Mountain - York highway, after an illness made more serious by the infirmities incident to old age.

Funeral services were held at Bethany A. R. P. church with Dr. W. P. Grier, of Clover, S. C., in charge. Burial took place in the Bethany cemetery.

Pallbearers were D. D. McCarter, W. M. Crawford, W. S. Grayson, J. Leslie McGill, F. L. Stewart and G. L. McGill.

Those in charge of the beautiful floral designs were the granddaughters, Mesdames Paul Kennedy, of Shelby, John Gamble, Claude Hambricht, Howard Pursley, John McGill of Kings Mountain, Leroy McGill of Gastonia and Elmer McGill.

Mr. McGill was a member of one of the most prominent families of York County, South Carolina. He was a son of the late William McGill, Esq., and Emiline M. Henry McGill. His entire life with the exception of the years spent as a resident of Kings Mountain, were spent in York county. For many years he was an elder in Bethany A. R. P. Church, later moving his membership to Boyce Memorial church, Kings Mountain. He was the oldest elder in this church. He belonged to a family that has long been prominent workers in their church.

On February 9, 1875, Mr. McGill married Miss Isabella J. Lowry, daughter of the late Major and Mrs. John Blair Lowry.

Surviving are one son, Dr. W. J. McGill, two daughters, Mrs. Emma Pursley of Kings Mountain and Mrs. G. W. Whitesides of Charlotte. Also surviving are ten grand children and several great-grandchildren.

A daughter, Miss Carrie McGill and son, Mr. Lowry McGill, passed away several years ago.

The funeral and burial services were attended by a large crowd of relatives and friends.

The San Antonio, Tex., zoo this year raised more cats than at any time during its existence; five leopard, six pumas, three lions and two tigers.

J. K. Goforth, Age 84, Died Saturday

J. K. Goforth, 84 year old retired farmer, died near Kings Mountain at 3 o'clock Saturday morning. He had been ill with a cold and suffered a heart attack.

The funeral was held at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Patterson Grove Baptist church, with the Rev. H. C. Sprinkle, Jr., of Kings Mountain and the Rev. J. W. Suttle of Shelby, officiating.

Mr. Goforth is survived by three sons, J. D., and A. B. Goforth of Kings Mountain route 1, and H. G. Goforth of Lenoir; and three daughters, Mrs. John Carroll and Mrs. R. M. Burton, who live near Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Henry Ballard of Lincolnton.
