KENNETH ROSS ROBERTS
 715 Piedmont Ave.
 Meet Kenneth, fine young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Roberts, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hambright of Grover, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Roberts of Kings Mountain. He is 20 months old, has brown eyes, blonde hair and weighs 26 pounds. Kenneth is number 15 on this week's Honor Roll.

With tomorrow and Saturday to work in The Herald Baby Derby, and with several of the candidates closely bunched, the remaining hours will be hours of hard work and supreme effort on the part of those who expect to win the big prizes.

The only advice we can give the candidates is to work, fight and hustle until the Baby Derby closes at 10 o'clock Saturday night. They cannot have too many "miles" and miles will decide the winners.

There is every reason to expect real business from all candidates this week. Every candidate is, on even terms on the final period miles schedule. This schedule holds the same possibilities for each candidate. It is better to be safe than sorry. Candidates should give their opponents full credit for their available strength and then on the basis of their own good judgement and keen discernment — go out and wind up their campaign with ONE BIG ON-RUSH OF MILES. Nothing is won yet! The Baby Derby is not over until 10 o'clock Saturday night. Let us suggest that "overconfidence on the one hand and fear on the other have lost more for candidates than they ever won."

The management of The Herald and the Baby Derby management wish to express to the candidates their appreciation of the splendid work done during the Baby Derby and to the public for the liberal support given the workers. We, also, wish to thank the merchants who co-sponsored the Baby Derby. The Baby Derby has been in charge of Robert Harvey and wife of the Piedmont Circulation Service, and has been conducted throughout with the most scrupulous fairness.

This newspaper wishes that it were possible for every one of the candidates to win $200 and loving cup, but that is impossible. However, one of the workers is going to win the big prize, and others will receive other valuable awards. The Herald has no special interest in any particular candidate and no favoritism will be shown. The only interest the newspaper has is that absolute fairness shall prevail. The winner must be determined by the candidates themselves.

Why not give your subscription or an extension Saturday? It may make the winner. Those who do not pay up to date will be discontinued after the Derby closes.

"DRIBBIN' AROUND

"By George"

The High School season finally ended. The "finally" there means that they started to end it a week before they did, but the Cliffside post-ponement loomed up, and they had to play it off. So, it finally ended.

The ending was typical. That is, the girls won and the boys lost. So at least it was a natural ending. But it was an outstanding victory for the girls — in fact, one of the biggest defeats in the conference we believe. The final score was 20 to 3.

Mesmeur was the star in the final tilt, shooting twelve of the winners points. Humphries shot 6, and Sargeant went "bloozy" with two. It was a real triumph for Humphries, who played part of the game at Guard, and did good job of it.

The boys score was 26 to 20. Cobb, Cliffside's star was high for the winners, with eight points. Willis and Ballard split honors, with seven each.
