ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Mildred Moss, of this place to Mr. Frank Hoyle, Jr., of Shelby, was made Tuesday evening, when Mrs. E. A. Smith, Jr., sister of the bride-elect entertained at one of the loveliest parties of the season.

Pretty spring flowers, consisting of sweet peas, delphiniums, snapdragons, peonies and roses were attractively arranged in the living room and library.

Lridge was played at five tables with Miss Sara Kate Ormand scoring high and Miss Marietta Hoyle, of Shelby, low, each receiving attractive trophies. Miss Moss, the honoree, and Mrs. Myron Rhyne, a recent bride, were each presented gifts.

A tempting salad course with accessories and a sweet course was served. Miniature wedding bells topped the sweet course, making an effective decorative bridal motif.

Favors were tiny satin-covered match books in which were found the announcement. "Mildred Moss and Frank Hoyle, Jr., June 16, 1940."

Guests included Miss Mildred Moss, the honoree, Mesdames H. N. Moss, Hugh Ormand, Harry Page, Harry Warren, Troy Carpenter, W. B. Thomson, Harold Crawford, Myron Rhyne, Hayne Blackmer, Paul Neisler, George Moss; Misses Eva Plonk, Mary Mitchell, Helen Hay, Sara Kate Ormand, Margaret Smith, Sara Allison, Jett Plonk, and Daisy Humphries, all of Kings Mountain.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. John Anthony and Miss Marietta Hoyle of Shelby, sisters of the bridegroom.

MEETING OF STUDY CLUB

Mrs. Byron Keeter was hostess to members of the Study Club and invited guests entertaining at her home Tuesday afternoon. The rooms of the attractive new home were arranged with lovely spring flowers.
