

OPEN LETTER TO A SPEEDING DRIVER

I saw you barely miss a little boy heard you yell: "Get out of the way; don't you know better than to ride in the street?" He didn't answer because he hasn't learned to talk very well yet. So I'm going to answer for him.

No, the little boy doesn't know any better than to ride his tricycle in the street. He has been warned not to, but little boys don't always remember warnings; some adults don't either especially traffic warnings; for example, the one limiting the speed of automobiles.

I am going to tell you something about that little boy. He has a mother, who endured considerable inconvenience, anxiety and suffering to bring him into the world. He has a father who has worked hard and made many sacrifices to make him purpose of their lives is to have their little boy grow up to be a good and useful man.

Now stop a minute and think. If you should kill a child, how would you feel facing its parents? What excuse could you give them for having robbed them of their dearest possession? More important, what excuse could you possibly offer Him whose kingdom is made up of little children?

Children, my hasty friend, were here long before you or your automobile were thought of. All the automobiles on earth are not worth the life of one little boy. We don't know what the little boy may some day be, but we know what you are, and it's unimportant. We could get along without you, but we can't spare a single little boy on this street. — George Malcolm Smith.
