LESSLIE-WARE WEDDING SOLEMNIZED IN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

In a beautiful and impressive ceremony Miss Elizabeth Ware became the bride of Mr. Dixon Lesslie, at Boyce Memorial A. R. P. Church, last Thursday morning at eleven o'clock. Rev. R. N. Baird, the bride's pastor, officiated using the ring ceremony. Baskets of Madonna lilies, feverfew and daisies, posted against a background of ferns and other greenery, formed an effective setting.

A program of music was rendered by Mrs. N. F. McGill, pianist, Miss Nancy Erwin of Charlotte and Mrs. Paul Neisler, soloists, as follows: "Serenade," by Schubert, Mrs. McGill; "I Love Thee," Grieg, Mrs. Paul Neisler; "Liebestraum," Liszt, Mrs. McGill; "I Love You Truly," Carrie Jacobs Bond, Miss Nancy Erwin.

The "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional. During the ceremony, Mrs. McGill played softly, "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell and at the conclusion, Mrs. Neisler sang "O Perfect Love."

Ushers were James Lesslie and Dr. F. P. Gaston, of Rock Hill, S. C.; Robert S. Lesslie of Lesslie, S. C.; and Franklin Ware of Kings Mountain, brother of the bride.

The bride's only attendant, was her sister, Miss Annie Mae Ware, maid-of-honor. Miss Ware wore a sheer dress of crescent blue, with white accessories and carried an arm bouquet of Shasta daisies and pink larkspur.

The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Brown Ware, who gave her in marriage. She was attired in a becoming two-piece navy crepe Roman ensemble with white accessories. Her flowers were white rosebuds and valley lilies.

Mr. Lesslie had as his best man, his brother, Mr. Robert G. Lesslie, of Columbia, S. C.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ware of Kings Mountain and is a young woman of culture and charm. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and Erskine College, Due West, S. C. Since graduation she has taught in schools of Gaston and Mecklenburg counties.

She has been very active in the Y. P. C. U. work of her church and has held important state and district offices of that organization.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Nina G. Lesslie and the late J. D. Lesslie of Lesslie, S. C. He is a graduate of Erskine college and is employed as city chemist, at Rock Hill S. C.

The couple are at home at Lesslie, S. C., following a wedding trip in the mountains of Western North Carolina.

The bridal party and a number of out-of-town guests were entertained at a buffet luncheon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ware after the wedding. The home was arranged with daisies, feverfew and other lovely mixed flowers. Guests included a number from Kings Mountain, Charlotte Rock Hill and elsewhere.

Sixty guests called during the afternoon.

ENTERTAIN AT CAKE-CUTTING

Mrs. John McGill and Miss Ava Ware, entertained members of the Lesslie-Ware bridal party at a cake cutting at the home of the latter, following the rehearsal last Wednesday evening. Members of the immediate families of the couple and a number of friends were included making fifty guests.

The home was decorated throughout with lovely flowers.

The dining room, with the bridal color motif, white and green, observed, was unusually attractive.

Fifteen symbols including the ring, thimble, dime, etc., attached to streamers of white satin ribbon were hidden in the beautiful bride's cake. Decorations consisted of feverfew and white sweet peas.

Ice cream, cake and mints was served with the bridal color note again emphasized.

Refreshing punch was served on the porch as the guests arrived.
