UNCLE DAVE MACON AND SON, DORES

A troubadour of the Tennessee hills, Uncle Dave Macon, the "Dixie Dowdroy," is one of the most colorful figures in the amusement world today.
Uncle Dave is well up in his sixties. Mrs. Macon and their eight grown sons operate a large farm near Readyville, Tenn., while the daddy of the family troups the country, plunking his banjo and serving laughs to his brethren and neighbors.
Uncle Dave will appear at the Dixie Theatre in person next Monday, July 29th.

Paris, Mo., July 23.—A search for a dime netted Josh Lane $75.
Thirty three years ago the currency was placed in the 75 year old farmhand's billfold by his employer's wife. Lane forgot the incident, although he used the wallet occasionally.
Recently he lost a dime, started an intensive search. A look into a pocket of the billfold disclosed his "savings."

San Francisco, July 23.—Pan-American Airways reports the American Clipper, returning here from its first regular trip with airmail to New Zealand, had reached Canton Island from Noumea, New Caledonia.

New York, July 23.—The restaurant in the Italian Pavillion at the New York World's Fair closed last night on orders from the Italian Line, its sponsor. Manager Armando Tosi attributed the closing to a decline in business.
Fixtures valued at $340,000 will be shipped back to Italy, Tosi said, as well as a copper dance floor which presumably will go into armaments.

Marion S. C., July 22.—John Wilson Richardson, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duke Richardson of Marion, was drowned in Caddy's mill pond here this afternoon at 3 o'clock when the boat in which he was riding capsized. His brother, Harrington Richardson, and little Billie Stewart of Columbia were with him in the boat. The young boy hung to the boat, but Harrington Richardson had to be pulled from the water.

GROWS FREAK EAR OF CORN
Mrs. Sam Mode found one of the most unusual ears of corn in her garden patch this week. It is an ear of corn inside of an ear, or an ear turned wrong side out. The freak of nature is on display at the Herald office.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy they have shown us during the sickness and death of our dear husband and father. May God's richest blessings rest upon each of you.
