LIFE'S GREAT JOY
 Have you ever helped another? Ever earned a grateful smile? Ever asked a weary brother in to ride with you a mile? Have you ever given freely of your riches and your worth? If you haven't, then you've really missed the greatest joy on earth.

Has a thrill of pride possessed you? Have you felt your pulses run? As a weaker brother blest you? For some good that you have done?

Have you seen eyes start to glisten that were sad before you came? If you haven't, stop and listen — You have missed life's finest game.

—North American Union News

A FINE FAMILY
 The father of Success is Work. The mother of Success is Ambition.

The oldest son is Common Sense. The other boys are: Perseverance, Honesty, Thoroughness, Foresight, Enthusiasm and Co-operation.

The oldest daughter is Character. The other daughters are: Cheerfulness, Loyalty, Courtesy, Care, Economy, Sincerity, and Harmony.

The baby is Opportunity.

Get acquainted with the Old Man and you will be able to get along pretty well with the rest of the family.—Oaxcap Chronicle.

ADVERSITY
 A smooth sea never made a skillful mariner, neither do uninterrupted prosperity and success qualify for usefulness and happiness. The storms of adversity, like those of the ocean, rouse the faculties, and excite the invention, prudence, skill and fortitude of the voyager. The martyrs of ancient times, in bracing their minds to outward calamities, acquired a loftiness of purpose and a moral heroism worth a lifetime of softness and security.—Selected.

PETITION
 Let us thank thee, O Divine, for the days just as they come. Nor would we measure the sunshine against the storms as if to test Thy goodness by some petty form of bookkeeping. Thou preside over all our days, and whatever may be the face of nature, we trust Thy love. Let us go forth today, not in critical mood, nor in despondent mood, but in the mood of high faith, anxious—not to test Thy providence, but ready to do our part, taking care to hold our cup of blessing open-side up; so it shall receive the manna when it falls. Then shall each passing day be full of blessing.—George L. Perin.

CHEERFULNESS
 The men whom I have seen succeed best in life always have been cheerful and hopeful men, who went about their business with smiles on their faces and took the chances and changes of their mortal life like men, facing rough and smooth alike as it came; and so found the truth of the old proverb, that good times and bad times and all times pass over.—Charles Kingley.

Here and There . . .
 Haywood E. Lynch)

I noticed Charles and Henry Neiser last Friday getting a hair cut. Twins not only dress alike, but get their barber work simultaneously. And speaking about twins, I sat right behind Miles and Ernest Mauney at the Scout Church services last Sunday night. I have never yet been able to tell these boys apart. I looked them over good, they were dressed exactly alike in every detail, except one had his shoes shined and the other did not, but I still can't tell you which one should get credit for polishing his shoes.

have something in common besides being preachers. Each one's name is also the name of something else, namely: fisher, ham, and derrick.

I am beginning to get a little nervous about my wedding next Thursday night. You know marriage is a very serious business, especially when you are going to marry someone about twice your size. Miss Jo Woodward is the fortunate bride, and even though she is larger than me, I am going to trim her down to my size. There is several advantages in having a big wife, she can cut the wood and bring in the coal, and if some large guy tries to pick a fuss with you, you can let her do your fighting for you. And another thing if she is big and ugly like Jo, you never have to worry about some other man taking her away from you.

Hawk Haven, Harold Hunnicutt's airport, is not living up to its name. Custodian L. C. England caught a sparrow hawk out there last week, and it will be a long time before that hawk will be able to make a three-point landing at Hawk Haven.

Unusual Fact: Rev. Herman Fisher is one of seven brothers, five of whom are ministers. Added Thought — if they can all preach like him, they are certainly a preaching quintuplet.
