A monthly newspaper devoted to the promotion of the general welfare and published for the enlightenment, entertainment and benefit of the citizens of Kings Mountain and vicinity.

THE VALUE OF THRIFT

Much of the discontent and suffering of the world could be relieved through wide cultivation of the habits of thrift by laying by money, however small the amounts or of gaining possession of useful things. For thrift, it should be noted is not the mere saving of money, but economy as well, in the judicious investment of funds.

In the United States there are comparatively few persons who may be unable to command a place, for whom it may be impossible to save an interest at least equal part of his earnings. Much depends upon the will to do this, more in fact than upon an unbroken industry to do so.

That Americans, despite their tragic inclinations to waste, have in recent years been becoming thrifty is quite evident, particularly in increased savings accounts in banks, an extended connection of credit and the like, economy in the purchase of homes and other personal possessions, etc.

IDLENESS

Idleness is the bane of body and mind, the curse of inactivity, the chief author of all misfortune. It is one of the seven deadly sins, the easiest upon which the devil chiefly operates, and a great curse, not only of himself but of many other devils. The human mind is naturally active, and if it be not applied about some honest business, it turns unto mischief or ends unto death. Bacon.

Here and There . . .
Haywood S. Lynch

I have several readers who always turn to this column the first thing to "see what Lynch has written." I always want to have some interesting bits of unusual news so that those who want to "see what Lynch has written," will not be disappointed.

I have had right much to say about the "new crop" of soldiers visiting in Kings Mountain lately. I have recently heard about two ex-soldiers from World War Number 1 returning to Kings Mountain to revisit homes they stayed in 23 years ago. One former soldier and his wife visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith and another paid a return visit to Mrs. Gill Hambrick. Both parties stated they thoroughly enjoyed the second visit of their soldier friends and reminiscences war days of almost a quarter century ago.

Everyone knows that prices are rising, and with every mail local merchants received advanced price lists. Byron Keeter received one Tuesday that quoted present prices and stated for future prices to Shad Miller and his friend John L. Lowrie.

I like to talk to "Old-Timers" of Kings Mountain and get a slant on The Best Town in The State in the good old days." Tuesday I engaged John Plank in conversation and learned that: he used to go to South Boston, Va., and buy a solid car load of buggies and wagons.

If his memory serves him correctly the first four cars in Kings Mountain were owned by Dr. McCoy, Walt Dilling, Charles Dilling (not young Charlie), and himself that he went to Charlotte to get his car, back before there were any roads and a bridge across Catawba River, which had to be ferried.

that Mr. L. F. Neal who operated a livery stable was his best customer on buggies that some of the owners of fine driving horses were: J. M. Williams, Dr. J. G. Hord, Charles Dilling, Tom Fulton.

that the reason he bought a car so early was because he had a narrow escape when a high spirited horse ran away with him — that he has been in business here for the past 41 years.

Man About: Town Joe Mauney who is about my size outstrips me as a producer of hen fruit. Now when good fresh eggs are about as scarce as hen's teeth, Joe presented me some fine casket berries. Thanks Joe, all I had to do was furnish the bacon and toast.

Jim McGill who is quite a salesman of gents' clothing is out to dress the men up in new winter suits, so they can be as attractive to the ladies who adorn our fair city.

Folks, you are all invited to the Big Christmas Parade next Wednesday afternoon at 4 P. M. Milton Ruth is in the market for two elephant riders, volunteers are asked to contact the chairman of the Committee.

Garland Still, has a unique way of checking on a prospect's credit. He has a counter display which is made of coins welded together, and if he notices the customer trying to pick up one he gets a little slow about extending credit.

FOR SALE: At a bargain one large size pony saddle, harness and cart. G. A. Bridges.

Our business豫ogies to Vivian Price for writing about her dating daily lives — and also to daily Gene Daily and the gossip column to Viv as she would be able to see it.

The big Sunday night comedies to show down this younger generation Sunday night, but Harry and Jeanette Maher were having a grand time, reports some of those experts who do most of their reading on Sunday nights. Harry and Miss Ruth seem to be getting up quite a case. They also helped to make up the quartet Sunday night.

Pig Boone stepped out with the solo jester from Griffin's Drug Saturday night. Where did we see you two Saturday night? We have the goods on you! And we wonder if Harry heard about this. By the way how was the candy store?

Gologie went to a dance in Shelby last Wednesday night with Shelly's drum-major, did we see Warren around town this weekend? There everyday.

Is new puppy love cases budding Robert Falls finds time to write Virginia McDaniel notes in school. Robert, we think she has blue eyes instead of brown.

Billy Ruddock kept Fay Moss company Sunday night. Watch out, Maude, don't let too much competition roll around. It is rumored that Bud dark dated Betty Falls Saturday night. Too funny that he could be two places at one time. Billy have been holding out on us or do you have a twin?

What will these girls do while that fat friend is crippled? Tough luck that Ben and Jackie has to get hurt just when the band has so many interesting places to go. Gologie Cornwell and Hal are still on our list as a cute couple. George and Martha are still old faithfuls. That's all for now.

We are sorry Miss Lowrance is ill and can't be with us in school. Her wishes for a speedy recovery.

Seems as though riding pants are the latest "fad" among these grammar school girls.

Douglas just what were you doing in Dallas Saturday night? Did you have a good time?

We hear Carolyn Carpenter had a grand time Saturday night. Come on tell us about it, Carolyn.

Norman Roper and Lucille Cashier were seen together Sunday night. How long has this been going on?

Marilyn Pfifer prefers a girl from Gastonia. Who is she? Marriott still spent most of his spare moments visiting Doris, while she was home.

It is rumored that Menard and Date are rekindling the old flame. What about it kids?

Make one of our cute sofas, receives mail from Shelby. What does Monroe think of this?

We hear Vip and Billy Gene and Jim and Gologie enjoyed another dance at Shelby again Thursday night.

Rara Starkey and Ted are seen around town quite a bit together lately.

Well as grandma would say, the yarn is all wound off. So until next week same time, same paper, same name.
