Kings Mountain Herald Catablished 1889 Published Every Thursday

HERALD PUBLISHING HOUSE. Haywood E. Lynch

Editor-Manager Postothes at Kings Mountain M. C., under too Act of March 3.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

An promotion of the general well through published for the enlightment, entertainment and benefit of the citizens of Kings Mountain and

THE MAN WHO WING! The man who wins in .an average

Not built on any peculiar Aun-Not birnsed with any proubler buck

Just steady, and earnest and full of When asked a question he doesn't

He knows, and nnewers, "No" or

When set at a task the rest cant do team by dropping in neveral quick man who tries thing well-

Tital if descent po, all he knows in the last half

And the men wh ochtrhed whenever they could made good!

who works Who neither trouble for labor

The men who wine is the man who re their lead.

-Anonymous

DO YOUR PART There are many kinds of patriot.

tent many was of showing your OPEN FORUM to be America. The but befronts r + far away across the oceans, yet right here at home all of us can be southers a diran because like and there with course, and discipline In the present cries, that's the

of a street of mass production to of distribution That's why around times more people can by more things more vasily here, January 24, 1942. than it swhere else. Now that come products are and to become scarce. we've got to take extra care that; Dear Mr. Lynch; we don't disturb that system distribution more than we must. We've got to take extra care that we don't put impossible demands on that we don't disrupt it by boarding

Here in America there's no extuse for hoarding. We have plenty of food. There will be shortage of some manufactured goods, but we will have enough basic necessities. Our system of distribution acared to supply our NORMAL want. If suddenly we increase our walls to ASNORMAL proportions by panicky buying, we will throw it out of gear We'll create shorts ges that otherwise wouldn't exist. drive prices up to extreme highs. You can help to prevent that refusing to become frightened by talse rumors of severe searcities. by buying no more than you usually do, by trusting n America and America's ability to keep you supplied with all the things you really

BASKET BALL TEAMS SPLIT WITH CHERRYVILLE

In one of the fastest games of the season the local backethall hove defeated the Cherryville team 22 to 16 Tursday night on the home court Plonk its pivot man, started the Scoring for the Kings Mountain

-Buy Defense Stamps And Bonds

Produced and Processes In Cleveland County

CAROLINA DAIRY PRODUCTS

Carolina Dairy,

Here and There .

Maywood E. Lynch

Claude Webb of The Theatre is very patriotic. I notice where he has painted his bleyde rack in front of the Theatre, Red.

George Barber is very fond of music. He says he would be on the Somebody broke into my office test week and stale my typewriter. typewriter it's bad. It's like when a banker loses his money, or a barber leass his scissors, or a machanic his tools. My typewriter is my stock in trade, and certainly wish the guy would bring it back. I have Chief Jimmy Burns and Fingerprint Hoover on the job, so I might get my last week so I can alip up on the guy that stale my livelihood. Maybe the thief will not recognize me with-

I was out to see Hayne &ackmer and George Manney yesterday afternoon in their new offile, and it's a fine place with venetian blinds, incandescent lights, hardwood floors and oil heat. The only thing missing was a good looking stenagra-pher. But she can be added anytime.

He buckles down til he puts it thru! | baskets during the first few minu-Three things no has learned. That les of the game. This gave the local Finds favor in his employer's eyes, At the half they were leading 17 to That it pays to know more than one 4 This lead enabled Coach Sawyer to rur in a number of his reserves

Sorgeant and Moss led the scor-No he works and wates til one fine ing sitack during the second half The exertent passing showt by There a better job with bigger Wave Miss Gamble and Hawles, mps tely demoralized the gondecree which Cherryville attempt-

Are bossed by the man whose work constanding work for Cherryille no, shown by Carpetter and Beam; For the man who want if the man who together scored all of theday tram's 16 points.

The local girls lost the second same of the season 18 to 15. The W ... uses his hands his head his superior passing attack shown by the Cherryville girls seemed to ac-

> The next home game will be Friday aght Jax 50, with Forest City

A" open forum for our readers letter can be published if it exceeds 500 words. No ananymous communications will be acwill not be published however, if the author so requests. The oginir no expressed here in are not no essarily those of the Hersid.

Editor Kinge Mountain Herald. Kings Mountain, N. C.

For Service Quality Delivery

Try Us

We are Here to Serve You

> Buy Your Defence Stamps Here

C. J. Gault

Acknowledging receipt of my first up to your door best paper in the "Best Town in the State. It is really grand to have the Company M., 19th Int. news of the Old Home Town mailed Camp Gordon, Georgia copy of the SHRALD, and after Nutil I receive a final copy of stancing fin various columns. I the HERALD, I shall remain an atched look forward to flaturiny of tentine reader. Seet of lack in the rach week for the arrival of the fature?

· Chapter One

A tower suits in the Sherry-Netherlands — one of New York's swanth betals — two cars, a chauf-four, a petuonal maid, a trust fund, hate by Nicola, gowns by Banton, a manusion under construction in Severiy Hitle these are the ac-coutrements of success, Hollywood's peans old, but the gustley funcio-manusier of the receivable of the contrements of success. Hollywood's tearester of the popularity of the care the sun shines on.

Claudette Colhert had all of those things when she test visited New York just after she had won the award of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for the best feminine performance of the past year in "It Happened One Night."

It's a the cry from all that to the quiet little house in the manie Mande quarter, just within the wall of Puris. where

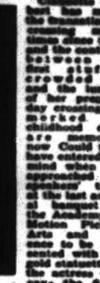

There was no beating of drums to here d the birth of the frist daughter to be Education. No the infant, the gay life of Paris bubbled on to way, serene-ty unaware that an EVENT was

Lily's days in were frequent Lily - in her child- rite phrases but they would cer-hold everyone called her that - tainly have been true coming from leave the room whenever Grand: Y. IK and was, even at the time of pere Chauchein came in Frensed the bouquet, preparing to leave her for an explanation, she finally and hid board the Chief for the

It seems that, despite his three-It seems that, despite his tirregrare-and-ten years, Grandp.re Theuchoin was still hale and bearty He was a gay old fellow, two for he often sing in a voice that Maman Chauchoin had said
"could bring down the roof." It wathe eventuality that the prudent Lity tried to avoid by leaving the room whenever Grandpere Chau-

was becoming includingly arrogent and, in the calls it was said that France, too, was running desp-

Claudette Colbert just after she had gave the finest screen performteon the award of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences

Lily's days in for her performance in "H It is doubtful that they did. for she was a cider brother. Charles, and when too excited for retrospection The she was sold enough, she would promenade with Maman down the picturesque, tree-shaded structs of the ray more than a husky "thank ruburb, stopping every few steps to be in the cheering audience and investigate solemnly some new to plant a resounding kins on the wonder that Paris had unfolded to sharing rheek of Shirley Temple, who made the presentation.

"Oh, this is too much!" or "I where Grandpere Chauchoin aved don't know how to thank you" are sometimes felt uncomfortable in the Claudette at that moment. So sure it became evident that Lily was try win the award that she had proing to avoid him, that she tried to ceeded with plans for a trip to New

> She tric literally walking out of to drive to the statio ther phone rang. It was Clark

"Laten. Prog." be said. "you'd letter ; wa here to the banjust right away. You got the

"The Academy award. Comes cown." At just about the same recent a frantic young assistant director come pasting up to the director came panting coor It was he who dr statuette.

AWRY to PER

menies." Claudette confessed litter, "I was blushing furtously with emclothes and ecods of jewels! I fell

(To be comb

like little Orphan Anniel"

Special This Week

THIS AD IS WORTH $1.60

Ruth's Beauty Shor

NEW 1942 DUO-THERM RADIANT-CIRCULATOR

AND circulates beat! Look at these fee-tures: bandy Diel Control . . . feural QUILY $39-951 COMM. IN AMD THE TY

Kings Mountain Furniture Co.

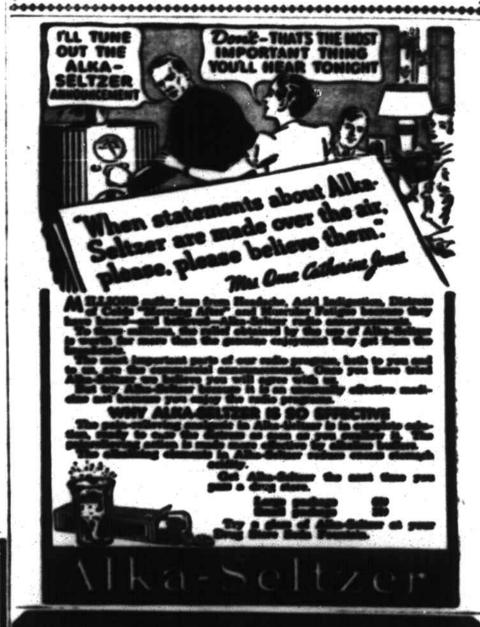

Happiness Begins At Home

NOTICE

Town Tags for Automobiles and Trucks have been on sale at the City Clerk's office at the City Hall since January 1, 1942. There are approximately 600 automobiles and trucks in the Town of Kings Mountain requiring these tags and to date only about 300 have been sold.

All persons are hereby notified that they must have their town tags displayed on their vehicles by the first of February, 1942. After that date indictments will be drawn for II vehicle owners who have not nurchased such tags and each violator will be subject to a fine of$1.00 which will mean that the tags will cost each delinquent buyer the sum of $2.00 instead of $1.00.

J. A. BURNS, Chief of Police

Protect Your Car

Have it serviced where you are assured of Expert Care

> Modern Lubricating Machinery and Quality Lubricanta

Center Service

Phone 62 Everything For The Car

J. C. Arnett