

Do You Want To Fly With The Navy

Charles, S. C.—To all young men in the Carolinas and Georgia who want to fly with the Navy, Sixth Naval District headquarters today announced the reduction of the minimum Class V-6 age requirement from 20 to 19 years.

Men enlisting in this class enter as Seamen 2nd class, are trained as aviation cadets, and emerge as commissioned officers—Lieutenants With Wings.

U. S. Navy Recruiting Stations throughout the three states have information on the requirements for Class V-6.

Men from 19 to 27 wishing to enlist in Class V-6 must have a minimum education of two full years of college or the equivalent, and the physical, moral and psychological qualities required as an aviation cadet.

College juniors and seniors after enlistment in V-6 may be deferred from call to active duty until completion of their current college year if they on request. Sophomores may enlist if they will have completed the two-year requirement by the end of the current school year. They will not be ordered to active duty until that requirement is fulfilled.

In 1775 John Hancock signed a commission making Samuel Nichol as a Marine captain, the first commission of the U. S. Navy.

The U. S. Marines have made at least 200 landings to protect Americans abroad during the 166 years of their organization.

SUPER SNOOPERS

How's the folks? How are you just killing the time away, and hearing a lot about your do's and doings.

We hear the gang on the picnic had quite the time. It seems Jackie Gamble and Sara started were a new addition to it.

All the Seniors and Juniors are dressed up to kill today and we believe all the girls' rolled their hair. Well — we'll not have you guessing. They're having their picture made for the Annual.

Billy Gene it seems you and Gogle had a nice walk Friday night. Then, Burk Womack and Gogle had the time Saturday night. Just ask Fay and Peeler. They were along.

If you didn't go to the game in Reasmer Thursday night, you missed a good time. The Mountainers really played a good game.

Charles Neisler must have a pretty good line — he seems to have Mary Anne on the end.

It seems that Woodie, Amos and Douglas spent a great deal of their time with Sara H and her roommate. Quite the killers—eh?

Bonnie M. and Roper were together Sunday night — when did this begin Bonnie? Someone ask Pete Suber who her new heart-throb is?

Rachel Smith was home for the weekend. Judgey H stayed down her way most of the time.

Ned, who were the girls you and Jimmy were with Sunday?

Gogle C. enjoyed watching Gibble at the banquet Friday night, even if it was just a window view.

Everyone has enjoyed a certain poem that was sent from Raleigh to a certain boy here—cute poem we must say.

Thorney, we enjoyed watching you Saturday night! (Just guess you knew you had on-lookers?)

Men—ll — who did we see you with Saturday night?

Well we'll see you at the ball game Friday night. So—Remember, We are the Snoopers.

And Super We are. We've got your number. Right Up To Par.

COLLEGE COMMENTS

(By Carolyn Prince)

Between terms at college a good many K. M. students begin showing up at home. Among those seen last week-end in the fair city were Gogle Cornwell reporting doing O. K. at school; Charlie Alexander, with a classmate from Spindale N. C. visiting him; Panta Bridges, Bo Olive, Stag Fortson and Puff Hord, all from Wake Forest; Peeler Thomason rushing out of the Drug Vera Sargeant sitting in the church pew, and a good many others besides.

More will be at home next week-end.

We were sorry to hear that Jimmy (Duck) Dickey having recovered from the gold ole "mumps" on one side, was unable to attend the Lions Football Banquet last Friday night because—of all things—the "mumps" from the first side!

We hope that he, at Catawba College is doing all right.

This summer several of K. M.'s college students faces will be missed around town because of summer school. National Defense has made it necessary that college education be sped up and those students who are anxious to get through quicker will be in schools of higher learning during the summer months.

Bye now —
