of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES: Home 271; Office 96 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON.

MEETING OF HOME ARTS CLUB Mrs. Grady King was hostess to members of the Home Arts Club and invited guests entertaining at her home on West Mountain street Wednesday afternoon.

The rooms were attractively inviting and cheerful with decorations of miniature pot plants and early cut flowers.

Mrs. W. K. Crook had charge of the study for the afternoon featuring an interesting and practical talk on Interior Decorating with emphasis on color combinations by Miss Elizabeth Anthony. Miss Anthony showed a number of pictures illustrating important points in her discussion.

During the social hour guests were seated around card tables and asked to empty contents of their handbags on the table before them. After a careful count of articles which ranged from hairpins to defense stamps, including receipts for hospital bills, many brands of chewing gum, lipstick, etc., Mrs. Troy Carpenter was announced prize winner. Mrs. Carpenter's bag carried a round 50 articles and she was presented a roomy shopping bag.

The hostess served a tempting and course with coffee.
