GOFORTH-PHARR WEDDING IN CHURCH

The marriage of Miss Anne Pauline Goforth of Kings Mountain and James York Pharr Jr. of Concord, Lieutenant Army of the United States, was solemnized at Central Methodist Church, Wednesday afternoon, June 24th, at 5:30 o'clock. Rev. J. G. Winkler, the pastor officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The altar was flanked with graceful ferns and other greenery. White gladioli and Bristol fairy in tall flower baskets flanked the altar, and completed a beautiful setting for the impressive services.

A program of music was rendered by Mrs. Audrey Mounsey organist and Miss Margaret Cromartie, soloist of Lenoirville, N. C., former college classmate of the bride. Prior to the entrance of the wedding party Mrs. Mounsey played "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" by Saint Saens. Miss Cromartie sang "Because" by De Ardelio and "I Love Thee" by Grieg.

For the processional Mrs. Mounsey played "The Bridal Chorus From Lohengrin" and for the recessional "Mendelssohn's Wedding March." During the exchange of vows "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes" was played. Mrs. Mounsey wore an afternoon costume of aqua and yellow silk with shoulder corsage of Tallisman roses. Miss Cromartie wore powder blue silk jersey with corsage of red roses.

The ushers were I. Ben Goforth Jr. of Kings Mountain and Erskine Pharr of Concord, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom had as his best man his brother John Melvin Pharr of Concord.

Miss Mary Evelyn Goforth, sister of the bride was maid of honor and her only attendant. She wore a becoming gown of sheer crepe in floral design with white accessories and carried a nosegay of red roses. The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Miles O. Thornburg of Gastonia, N. C.

The bride wore a modish semi-formal dress of delphinium blue with navy and white accessories. Her shoulder bouquet was of orchids.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a short wedding trip and after July 1st, will be at home in Charlotte.

The bride, second daughter of Mrs. E. H. Harmon Goforth and the late (Grand) Goforth, graduated from Flora MacDonald College, Red Springs, N. C. in 1941 where she majored in Home Economics and Science.

She is a young woman of culture and charm and a descendant of two well-known families of this section. Lieutenant Pharr, son of Mr. and Mrs. James York Pharr of Concord, N. C., is a graduate of North Carolina State College, majoring in textiles. He is now stationed in Charlotte where he is with the Quartermasters Depot.

Guests at the wedding included relatives and close friends of the couple from Kings Mountain, Concord, Gastonia, Charlotte and elsewhere.

Following the rehearsal at the church Tuesday night, the bridal party were entertained informally at the home of the bride's mother, on Piedmont Avenue.
