MRS. PINKNEY CARPENTER MARRIED IN ASHEVILLE

Announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Pinkney Carpenter and L. I. Merchant of Asheville will be of interest in Kings Mountain where the Carpenter family lived for many years prior to going to Washington to make their home.

The marriage took place in a quiet ceremony at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. B. E. Hampton and Mrs. D. Y. Simmons on Evelyn Place, Asheville.

The bride wore a gown of dark blue chiffon with bodice trimmed in blue imported thread lace. Her carriage was of orchids.

Mrs. Merchant is the daughter of the late Captain S. O. Smith of Asheville and Charlotte. Mr. Merchant is a well known contractor of Asheville.

After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip through the mountains of Western North Carolina. They will reside at Mr. Merchant's country home on the Mills River road.

OFFICERS' WIVES SHARE QUARTERS

The following is clipped from the Coronado Journal, Coronado, Calif.

Coronado has long been accustomed to housing of the Commissioned Officers' Club and the Officers' Mess, but an Officers' Wives Club is something new to the city since the out-break of the War and the housing shortage. There are several houses in the city being occupied by from two to ten service wives and another one this week has come into being in one of the large houses on J. Avenue, are now living four officers' wives who came here from various parts of the country. Mrs. Roscoe J. Eastham, from Charlottesville, Va., Mrs. John S. Lee, of Galveston, Texas, Mrs. R. C. Etheridge of Kings Mountain, N. C. and Mrs. I. J. Superfine of Washington, D. C.

S. A. MAUNEY AND FAMILY HAVE REUNION SUNDAY
