Here it really is a small place. The Lynans had in playing there for two weeks, so we danced.

I had a card from Bill Fulton, Jr. another Kings Mt. boy who is in Fort Logan, Denver. I am going to Denver this week end to see him. A very nice country and lots to see and do. Guess I had better get busy again. Making the payroll, a thing I like to do, and the one thing all the fellows like to sign.

Its now 3 P. M. I will say so now.

WITH THE BOYS IN SERVICE

Dear Mr. Louch—

I get your paper every week, and I can say that the current news and events have been of great interest to me, and some of the boys here as the only way to keep the home fire burning is by letters from home and the weekly paper specially, The Kings Mountain Herald.

The Armored Division of course is a fast moving outfit and so there fore I have to be alert too. The Field Artillery is the branch I am in as you know, and our big gun is a 105 howitzer which is a beauty and will give the Axis plenty of hell, when we contact them. We go on maneuvers 24th of Aug but we will leave 21st no doubt. Although we claim sacrifice we still buy bonds to help this grand old country of ours to win. So hoping you will stop continuation of this till after maneuvers about middle of Sept. Sure will miss it but please continue until we leave as we can do enjoy the paper a lot. Could write a book but guard duty to night and thought this short letter of appreciation from me and rest would ease our minds.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Editor—

Since being so far away from the good town of Kings Mt. I really do look forward in getting the Herald each week. I usually get it on Monday just the day that I appreciate it most, as Monday is, well like it is every place I guess.

The Camp here is just being completed and is rather small, a new camp right at the very foot of Pikes Peak. As we sit here and work we talk of the snow up there. All we have to do is to sit here and look out the windows to see snow in August. A very beautiful place. We have noticed the snow never seems to melt. It is there all the time. Colorado Springs is a very beautiful town. We are only four miles out. We can go into town every night if we like. Lots of interesting places to go.

The past week end I spent in Denver, Colorado, about 70 miles from community Mr. Bill Adams, Mr. Howard Lee Parker, Mr. Jennings, M. and Mrs. J. B. Clouta have moved to Belmont where they have jobs.

Report Made Farmers On College Research

A printed report on the N. C. Agricultural Experiment Station's activities and research progress during 1941 is now ready for free distribution to farmers of North Carolina. It was announced by L. D. Fayer of State College, director of the Experiment Station. The report is written in the form of short articles in popular style.

Your Experiment Station is embarking upon a long needed program of getting the results of research in the hands of farmers and other agricultural workers in a form that is easily understood and readily usable. Dr. Fayer said in the introduction to the 62-page report.

The eight major sections of the report discuss research activities and progress with field crops, horticultural crop, livestock and poultry, soils and fertilizers, and economic and social problems. A list of publications issued by the Experiment Station during the past year is included.

Success in agriculture and the prosperity of farmers depend largely on facts for efficiency in the production of plants and animals and the ability of the farmer to utilize these facts to his best advantage. Dr. Fayer said. The task of agricultural research is to seek the truth for the farmer and to establish facts upon which he can rely.

The State College leaders, Dr. Fayer stated that. The farmers of North Carolina have been asked by the Government to increase production of Food For Freedom. The Agricultural Experiment Station must meet the back of finding out just what is possible, how it can be done, and meet the demands of the Government.

Material to extend production facilities for dehydrated peaches has been given a high priority rating by the WPR upon the recommendation of the Food Requirement Committee.
