THIS AND THAT

(By H. V. Bell)

Wonderful world strange being in habit this globe Mr. Wilkie after gliding around for months when he got back home he sighed and said "Oh show, what a little old world I bet a damn nickel its a bigger world than Wilkie could have made in four years up at the Capitol, not to mention six days.

Just before the Presidential election I had the pleasure of meeting Cont. A. L. Bulwinkle in the best town in the world. We were speaking about the election and who is going to be president. I spoke up and said, "Well, if Mr. Wilkie gets to be president, all America will stink for the next four years." He Mr. Bulwinkle said, "Why Mr. Bell?" "Well, they have thrown so many rotten eggs at him and green
