

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES: Home 271; Office 98 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON.

NICKBLANTON MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hicks announce the marriage of their daughter, Frances Margretta to James Everett Blanton. The marriage took place in York, S. C., on June 29th.

Mrs. Blanton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hicks of Kings Mountain, N. C. She received her education at Kings Mountain High School and Bolling Springs College.

Mr. Blanton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Blanton of Shelby, N. C. He received his education at Springs High School and Bolling Springs College.

He has been employed at the Glenn L. Martin Aircraft Plant at Baltimore, Md., but has recently returned home to enter some branch of the U. S. Military Service. Mrs. Blanton will continue to make her home with her people for the present.

GRADE ENTERTAINED

Miss Craig Falls, grade mother for Miss Marie Linberger's fourth and fifth grades entertained the children in their class room Monday afternoon at a delightful party. Attractive prizes were given the winners in the games. Cookies and candies were served. The children sang several songs, including an enjoyable afternoon.

MEETING OF HOME ARTS

Members of the Home Arts Club instead of having their regular study and program, went to the Red Cross work room and assisted in handbag making after which they repaired to the home of the hostess, Mrs. George Mays, for a short business session presided over by the Mrs. John Gambell. Light refreshments consisting of a salad course with accessories was served.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ford Burton announce the birth of a son, Douglas Eugene, in City Hospital, Gastonia, last week.

MISS WHITE BRIDE OF LAMAR DEW

Miss Patricia Vaughn White became the bride of John Lamar Dew in a ceremony of simplicity and charm on Thursday evening, November 12, at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Cochran at 2742 Picardy Place.

The Rev. William M. Boyce, pastor of First Associate Reformed Methodist Church officiated using the ring ceremony. The vows were exchanged in the living room where an improvised altar was arranged with background of ferns, white chrysanthemums and white carnations. Candelabra held lighted candle tapers.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Lina Harrison played Liebestraum by Liszt. The bridal chorus from Liebestrahn was played for the processional and during the recessional. Macdowell's "To A Wild Rose" was played.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dew left for a short wedding trip after which they returned to Charlotte to make their home.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White of Kings Mountain and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. White, all of whom are well known in this section. She received her education in Kings Mountain and Greensboro and has been with the Quartermaster's post in Charlotte for some time.

The bridegroom has been in the service of the U. S. Army.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hardin and Jimmy Dixon of Charlotte visited Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Bell Sunday.

Mr. Ray Barber and some other Narraux boys are a deer hunting trip in the Eastern part of the state.

Mr. Fred Hambright and father made a business trip to Charlotte Friday.

Miss Clara Mae Gantt will leave Friday to enter Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee, N. C.

(Sgt. R. L. Hunnicutt visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hunnicutt recently.)

(Fet. Sam Meredith of Augusta, Ga. spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. S. M. Hunnicutt.)

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Mauney and Mr. and Mrs. George Houser are on a trip to New York City.

(Mrs. C. E. Neider has returned from a visit to her daughter in Pensacola, Florida.)

Mrs. Philip Capazza of Statesville is visiting her sister, Mrs. Heamond of Kings Mountain. Also visiting her sister at Fair View Inn.

Mr. Dwight Battersee went to Columbus, S. C., early in the week to visit his son who is in camp at that place.

Mr. Mill Howell who has been in Duke Hospital in Durham has returned home and is getting along fine.

Miss Dorothy Hoke, student at W. C. U. N. C. Greensboro has been on a visit at her home in Kings Mountain.

Ben Goforth, Jr., student of Appalachian State Teachers College, was a recent visitor at his home in Kings Mountain.

Mrs. J. E. Tate was a recent visitor in Nashville, Tenn., where she went to visit her husband who is in camp there.

(Miss Frances Italy and Miss Elm Morrison of Reidsville were guests of Miss Florence Sharp at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis during the week end.)

Mrs. J. O. Bumgardner and son Reginald returned last week from Akron, Ohio where they spent a week with Mr. Bumgardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kiser of Charlotte were guests of relatives in Kings Mountain during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thomason left Tuesday for an extended visit to their winter home in Palm Harbor, Florida.

Everett Hinson of Camp Fork has been home on a short furlough with his wife, Mrs. Birtie Hinson and daughter, Agnes, also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Hinson, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hinnicutt.

Miss Grace Withers, teacher of public school music in the city

TOP THAT
BY NEW YEAR'S
BUY WAR BONDS

Buy Defense Bonds and Stamps And Bonds

Imperial Theatre

KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. PHONE 134

TODAY — THURSDAY

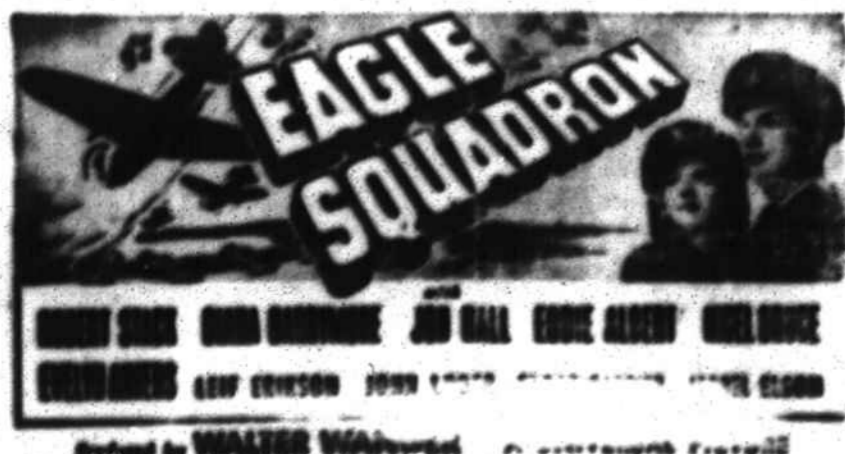

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Serial — Cartoon

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
EXTRA SPECIAL

Directed by WALTER WANGER

ONE A DAY
VITAMINS
THERE'S A 1 Year minimum...
NERVINE
DO YOUR NERVES SUFFER?
ALL-CAL

Dont Wish For Loveliness, Have It!

A relaxing hour spent in our modern shop under the expert care of an experienced operator will make an AMAZING difference in your appearance. And our budget prices make the cost SO small! Phone for an appointment NOW.

Vera's Beauty Shop

Friday and Saturday MYERS' Dress Clearance

SPECIAL After Thanksgiving Sale of Dresses

Spuns!
Woolens!
Crepes!

Sizes 9 to 15; 12 to 20; 38 to 44

ALL NEW FALL DRESSES 1-4 OFF MYERS' DRESS SHOPPE

Dress Shoppe—Second Floor