WITH THE BOYS IN SERVICE

Dear Mr. Lynch:
Today is Thanksgiving Day, way down here at the end of the trail, where the moon shines, like the setting of the sun in the Carolinas. When I ran up on Dornes Bennett and he had a copy of The Kings Mountain Herald, although it was a week or so old, Texas moons and a sweet smelling sage didn't mean a thing, for again I was back in the best town in the State, walking the same streets with all of my friends. You can't imagine how good it made me feel, having been down here a week without even a post card from home.

Will you please tell Lawrence Lovell to write us boys. Hal Olive and I would like to have a copy of your paper, so if our credit is good...
Cather R. Hoyle

Camp Walters, Texas.

Dear Mr. Lynch:
I am now back in Memphis after nine weeks of maneuvers in Central Tennessee, and I will thank you for the paper to the above address. I really enjoyed the paper on maneuvers. Of course I look forward to it each week wherever I happen to be.

There is another Kings Mountain service man here, Seaman 2nd Class... stationed at the New Navy base at Millington, Tenn., a few miles from where I am stationed. It was really nice to see someone from Carolina, especially someone I knew very well in civilian life. Southerners are very scarce among service men here.

Thanking you to take care of my change in address, and with best regards, Sincerely,
Clyde M. Putnam

Mr. "Walter Winchell" Lynch,
Editor The Herald,
Kings Mountain, N. C.
Dear Walter:

Well, here I am at my thousand dollar desk, sitting in my gilded chair, all ready for army life. And what a life this is. Breakfast in bed every morning, you get up, want telephone by your bed, maids, bell boys, sergeants. Anything you ask you get it, and Boy! YOU should know what it is, for it is B- (Sherman was right).

Every day I think I will open a new front. Everyone else in the Boy, you should see me now. Just got through eating my turkey dinner. We had everything and all the trimmings, except that bottled stuff. The clothes they have me are tops I got one blue serge suit (flourish) one tuxedo (also blue dash)
