FORMER KINGS MOUNTAIN MAN WEDS MIAMI GIRL

Marriage of Miss Barbara Costar Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walf Adams of Miami Shores, and Robert Simpson Chalk, son of Mrs. William H. Pumphrey of Miami, took place at five o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 15th, in the Trinity Methodist Church of Miami.

Rev. H. L. Allen performed the ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives of the two families before a candle-lit altar banked with tropical flowers and palms. The bride was given in marriage by her father, wore a navy blue ensemble of soft wool cloth as her only ornament an heirloom lavalier and a corsage of white orchids. Miss Virginia Grimes was the maid of honor and William C. Chalk was his brother's attendant.

A reception in the home of the bride for invited guests followed the marriage.

The bride is descended from the Costar and Adams families, Florida pioneers, and long prominent in this section of the State. The bride was graduated from Miami Edison Senior High School since her graduation she has been connected with the Civil Service Board of the City of Miami.

Mr. Chalk was graduated from Kings Mountain High School, Kings Mountain, N. C. He was with the Miami Police Department until September, when he asked for a leave of absence and entered the United States Navy. He is a specialist in the recently organized permanent Shore Patrol and at present is stationed at Miami. The couple are making their home at the Estavan Apartments, 117 N. E. 50th street, Miami, Florida.

MRS. GOFORTH ENTERTAINS SENIORS

Mrs. Charles A. Goforth, grade mother of the graduating class, was hostess to the 12th grade and several invited guests at her home on Wednesday, Dec. 9. At the end of five progressions of heart's dice, Louise Wright and Eugene Timms, winners of high and second high score respectively, were presented with Christmas containers of candy. After the hostess and her guests had placed red lighted candles on the tables and the guests had donned the festive red caps found in the scarlet favors on their plates and had read in turn their fortunes, the entire group enjoyed the delicious refreshments that were suggestive of the Yuletide.

Those present were Louise Wright, Martha McClain, Frances E. Lents, Edna Ruth Houser, Christine Gallant, Charles A. Goforth, Jr., David Saunders, Farman Wilson, Eugene Timms, Edgar Deese, Mrs. B. F. Wright, and Mrs. W. T. Wehr.

HOSTESS TO CIRCLE

Mrs. J. A. Arthur entertained members of Circle Number Two of the Womens Society of Christian Service of Central Methodist Church at her home last Tuesday night. The rooms presented a festive appearance with decorations suggestive of the Yuletide season. After the business session, a Christmas program was presented and the members exchanged love gifts.

A salad course was served during the social hour.

MISS MELBA KELLER WEDS MAYMORE SPARGO

The following announcement of the marriage of Miss Melba Keller formerly of Kings Mountain will be of interest to several readers.

A marriage of Miss Melba Keller throughout this section was that of Miss Frances Melba Keller and Maymore Robert Spargo, both of Gastonia. The ceremony was held in a private ceremony taking place Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock at a V. M. Street Methodist Church. The Rev. Claude A. Moser, pastor of the church, read the ritual which included the ring ceremony.

The bride was very lovely in a smart two-piece suit of beige wool with matching hat and shoes. Her flowers were bouquets and iris in a shoulder bouquet.

Witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morrison.

The bride who is an attractive and popular girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keller who recently came to this city from Kings Mountain. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and the Evans College of Commerce and holds the position of bookkeeper with the Gazette.

Mr. Spargo is a son of Mrs. Nancy E. Spargo and the late Robert A. Spargo and for some time has been connected with the mechanical department of the Gazette.

Mr. and Mrs. Spargo will be at home at 509 South street.

CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mauney celebrated their forty third wedding anniversary by entertaining all members of their immediate family who could come and a few additional guests at dinner at Jolly Lunch in Gastonia, Tuesday evening.

The table was arranged with decorations suggestive of the holiday season.

Mr. Mauney's gift to each of his children and grandchildren was a Savings Bond.

Gifts were also for Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mauney, Miss Martha Lou Mauney, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mauney, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Shenk, Mr. and Mrs. James and son, Rev. and Mrs. Herman Fisher, all of Kings Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wolfe and children and Mr. S. A. Wolf of Charlotte.

A Christmas Message To Our Boys In Service, And Their Loved Ones

At this Christmas time when the world is filled with struggle and strife, I want each of you to know that we at Home are thinking of you and are deeply mindful of the sacrifices you are making for mankind.

My Christmas Greeting for each of you at this season is the prayer that the true joy and peace of Christmas as we used to know it will be quickened by your service to your Country.

We have gladly wrapped hundreds of Gift packages to be sent to you, miles away from home, with our sincere wish that they reach you and cheer you on Christmas Morning.

And to your loved ones at Home, may they keep faith with Him, who leads us to the Everlasting Spirit of Christmas.

O. W. Myers

It is our sincere wish that loads of old-time Christmas joy will again be with us all during the Yule season. May the sacrifices of 1942 usher in soon a genuine era of good will. And thank a thousand times for your many kindnesses during the past year.
