NEW CLUB FORMED

Several patriotic girls in town have recently formed a club known as the "Jug Club." The name means—just as girls. The object of the club is to do helpful things for the war effort and the community. The members are planning to work at the surgical dressing room every Tuesday night, as well as put all their extra money into defense stamps and bonds.

The officers of the club are as follows: President, Marion Arthur, Secretary, Frances Summers, Treasurer, Emelva Gillespie, Publicity chairman, Jeanne Griffin.

Meetings are held alternating Wednesday nights with some member as hostess.

The club sponsored a caroling pilgrimage on Wednesday before Christmas.

INTERMISSION PARTY

Miss Emelva Gillespie was hostess at a most enjoyable intermission party at the home of her parents on Piedmont avenue during the dance given by a group of young people at the Women's Club Christmas night.

The Gillespie home presented an inviting and festive appearance with a beautiful arrangement of greenery and other decorations in keeping with the holiday season.

Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cookies, candies and fruit punch were served about twenty-five guests.
