WITH THE BOYS SERVICE
 Dear Mr. Lynch:
 I worked last week end with my sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Messervy, Jr. of Whitesville and I sure did have a wonderful time and enjoyed it very much. Since I haven't seen any of them in the last five months the New Englanders are O. K., but not like the good home cooking. We were talking of the things back home and I said, "Do you have a longing for home and ma's cooking?" She said, "No, no, and her husband smiled and said, "Cpl., that isn't the way I have heard it."
 The peepie up here are O. K. but not like dear old K. M. Folks.
 Sincerely yours,
 Cpl. Curtis A. Hinson

 P. S. I get the Kings Mountain Herald and enjoy it very much.

An average of 435 passenger trains are delayed a total of 300 hours each month by grade crossing accidents. Illustrated here is a typical case which helps build those monthly totals.
 The truck was struck by a passenger train at a crossing protected by flashing light signals, which were functioning. The truck was thrown clear of the tracks, striking and breaking a telegraph pole and an electric power control box. Although the truck driver had defective hearing, he was familiar with the crossing.
 The engine was damaged and it was necessary to cut out one Pullman car due to flat wheels.
 The National Safety Council is conducting a special campaign to stop these accidents, which every day delay 25 trains a total of 22 hours—a big blow to the nation's war transportation effort.
 Driver carelessness is the cause of almost all these accidents, according to the Council. To help win the war—to save yourself and others needless suffering—the Council asks you to be sure the track is clear before standing to cross.

Curculio Threatens Tar need Peach Crop
 Curculios which have escaped recent cold weather are in grave danger of being destroyed by the curculio. If prompt and decisive control measures are not taken, says Dr. Clyde F. Smith, Associate Entomologist of the State Experiment Station at N. C. State College.
 He reports that about ten times as many beetles are being found this year as compared with 1941, and that growers will have more wormy peaches at harvest time unless they use every possible means of controlling the curculio.

Dr. Smith makes four suggestions for controlling the beetles and he says that all four methods should be used. First, collect and destroy as many adult curculios as possible by jarring the trees. Second, follow a proper spray program. Third, pick up and destroy all crops. Fourth, cultivate thoroughly under the spread of the trees, as soon as wormy peaches cease to drop.

The extra large crop of beetles with a light crop of peaches makes it necessary to fight the curculio to a finish this year.

THIS AND THAT
 By H. Y. Bell

Garfield Royster says it's a lot better to keep your dog staked out than to have his hide shot full of bullets. I wonder what he feeds his dogs on. You can't get any points for dogs they want meat.

When I was a youngster we went to church where they had experienced meetings. All the sisters and brothers would get up and tell how they were getting along spiritually. I remember one old bearded saint got up and said, "Well, brethren, I don't exactly know where I stand. I have been cat-halved, devil-dragged, I guess. I need the prayers of the rest of you saints." Fred Hambright thinks the war will be over when we whip the Japs and Germans. Fred, we gotta whip them and then convince them they are whipped. Some truth in that. Brother Fred, Mr. Webb up at the Imperial says grub is better down at the Hotel than it has been in six years. That's how long Mr. Webb has been sticking his toes under the table. He asked me if I thought his point book has something to do with the good feed. I told him to wait until his points give out then he would know what it would be like to be hungry in a hotel. I don't know but one man in this town that owns two sets of joke teeth. My good friend, Arthur Ray, some how he got his first planted in the garden. Just ask Arthur for details. Some old sister said long ago if it rained when the cherry trees were in bloom we would have no cherries. I'm sorry it rained all day that night. My trees were in full bloom. We may have cherries. My grandmother used to tell us children if a whipporwill came up in the yard and hallowed at night it was bad luck. The darbies say if you kill a whipporwill your brother will die the other night. I heard the first one out in a tree close to a window. I covered up my head and just let him stay out there. I think the wildest place in town is down at Wright's Barber Shop. They will let you tell jokes while you wait to get it cut or shaved.

CENSORED
 Dear mom, I am censored. And can't write a thing. Just say that I am well. And sign my name.
 Can't tell you if it's sunny. And can't tell you when it rains. For that is a military secret. And a secret it must remain.
 Can't tell you where we called from. Nor can't tell you the date. Just tell you not to worry. And soon I hope to be in the States.
 So I don't know for sure. What the heck I can do. Except address the envelope. And send it to you.
 I am standing on the ground. Where Jesus was born. But I much'd rather be in Kings Mountain.
 Where Peanut was born.
 —Vernon (Peanut) Smith.

In a move to conserve rubber, OPA has ruled hereafter farm tractor and implement tires may be recapped only with Grade F, camel back, which is made almost entirely of reclaimed rubber.

Applications for gasoline to be used in tractors and other farm machinery should be mailed to War Price and Rationing Boards, or turned over to County UNRA War Boards for certification.

Thirty seven employee suggestions for improving war production will save war plants 176,000 man-hours annually.

UNCLE SAM NEEDS YOUR FINANCIAL HELP TOO

YOUR government asks you to buy all the War Bonds you can. Money, like food, is urgently needed. America's farmers have responded magnificently to the call for FOOD. We know they will respond the same way to the call for MONEY. You help your country plenty when you buy War Bonds—and you help yourself. Where is there a better investment? Every $3 you invest now comes back to you as $4 in ten years. America guarantees it. We call U.S. War Bonds as a patriotic service, without compensation or profit.
