PEACE WILL COME
When life seems hard to understand I turn to something right at hand. A kindly deed or simple task somehow brings me the peace I ask from thought. I know life's joys must come, And not from any trail I roam; If I can keep love blossoming My heart will never cease to sing. Crop the fears of yesterday, I dread not what shall cope my way. I meet each hour in bravest mood, And welcome all which I find good. —Selected.

YOUR MENTAL ATTITUDE
When some men are having a season of hard luck, they just naturally let set against the thought of ever having any good luck, and in that mental attitude they are seldom disappointed. They get the habit of mentally hanging on to their past hard luck and of course they cannot handle any good luck when it happens to come their way. They seem to have the necessary courage to combat ill luck, but they have lost the common sense to look in the direction of better luck. Your mental attitude indicates a-bout what you have reason to expect if you are thinking of nothing but disappointment and defeat, you will always be in a drowning frame of mind—sinking before you try to swim.—Selected.

THE INEVITABLE EFFECT
It is no wonder that the Senate War Mobilization Committee in a recent report declared that the home front is "sagging dangerously." A free people have found themselves shackled by bureaucratic red tape at almost every turn. They try to increase production—they try to get a war job—they try to raise crops—and in many instances they are slowed down or actually stopped by some restriction, decree or law that has so complicated our economic life that a citizen used to doing things for himself is stumped by a multiplicity of houses. Don't forget that the success of our war effort has been due to the drive of free private enterprise. Don't expect to hamstring that enterprise and not confuse and bewilder, and even destroy, the spirit of individual initiative and independence which built, maintained and must perpetuate this nation if our country remains as we have known it.

In The Mail: Several copies of The Stars and Stripes, weekly newspaper of the U. S. Armed Forces published in the North African Theatre of operations, which were sent me by Capt. Phillip Padgett, former Kings Mountain Dealer who is now serving his country "Over There." The paper is printed in Algiers and sells for two francs per copy. Your Editor appreciates these copies and only hopes that the Kings Mountain Physician enjoys his home-town paper — The Herald — as much as he did the foreign printed publication. Many thanks, Doc.

Seen On My Route: C. J. Gault and W. M. Jenkins watching the bathing beauties at Lake Monticello. J. R. Davis passing out bulletins in the lobby of Central Methodist Church Sunday morning. Paul Mauney walking down the street with a pair of pitchforks. J. E. Rhodes sauntering down the street with his fancy walkstick. L. George Mauney Mauney and his bride on their way to Church Sunday morning accompanied by Mrs. W. K. Mauney. L. J. Jimmy Mercer, as happy as a lark. Dr. L. P. Baker chewing on a cigar as usual. Jim Dorrough out collecting. E. E. Starbuck on his way to the Post Office to mail a package to Captain A. L. Hill, who is now "across the pond" flying instructor "Shrimp" Dumas in town. Airline Pilot Jimmy Horn riding in a fine Buick. R. L. Bell buying his $2.00 car stamp at the Post Office. Eddie Campbell looking real cute in his Navy Uniform. W. A. Chisler driving his truck. Campbell Philbar on his way to the Post Office.

The demand for coffee is not nearly so great now that it has been taken off the ration list.

The Old Mountaineer, who is doing a bang-up job writing a letter each month to the employees of the Margrace Mill who are now in the Armed Services, got out an unusually interesting letter for the month of July and I was fortunate enough to receive a copy. The Old Mountaineer, who has been in service during two wars, mentions the number of letters received by The Herald from boys in Service and intimates that he would like to start a friendly contest to see who can receive the most letters. So send your letters in boys and regardless of who wins, we'll all enjoy what you have to say and readers of both the Herald and The Old Mountaineer will get in on the fun. I'll be looking for your letters and remember in the words of Kate Smith, "If You don't write you're wrong."

WITH THE BOYS IN SERVICE

Editor's Note: For the benefit of those who have been circulating the false rumor that The Herald has resigned a number of letters from boys in Service that have not been published, this is to publicly state that not one letter has been considered to date which has not been printed. However, the policy of The Herald is, has been, and always will be, not to publish anything that will reflect on the character of any person honorably serving in the Armed Forces and wearing the uniform of any branch of Service of The United States of America.

Dear Mr. Lynch: Just a note to tell you I have enjoyed getting the Herald while I have been here. It is very nice to get it each week and read the news from the Best Town in The State. Would like to say hello to all my friends and we appreciate their support in this way thru their purchase of Bonds and Stamps. We know you will never let us down. I am sorry I cannot tell you where we are going, but I will send you my new address card, so that my home town paper will follow me. Thanks again for your kindness in sending my paper to me. Sincerely, Karl S. Sawyer.
