For Passing The Ammunition

Keep It UP--And We'll Never Let You Down!

Kings Mountain is literally carrying the war to the Nazis, the Japs, and the Italians—via a Flying Fortress that bears the name, "City of Kings Mountain, North Carolina."

This four-engined, heavily-armed plane, capable of carrying 10 tons of bombs addressed to Hitler or Tojo, is already in combat—where, we can't know until the "City of Kings Mountain, N. C." has made its mark. But, she's in there fighting.

Cash for this plane was lent to Uncle Sam last April by you patriotic men, women and business firms who purchased war bonds in the Second War Loan drive. Kings Mountain Citizens' investments soared far past the half million dollar mark.

Rural citizens, too, did their part in this gigantic campaign.

Kings Mountain and Cleveland county have sons scattered over the world, and wherever these planes are in action they will be seen by some of these boys.

Your backing the great Second War Loan drive let our Men-of-War know their relatives and friends on the home front were behind them. Their morale was boosted. The will and desire to win the war as quickly as possible and come on back was made stronger than ever.

The plane — "City of Kings Mountain North Carolina" — is in the fight. So are you who made them possible by purchasing war bonds. KEEP IT UP.

This is the Boeing Flying Fortress "City of Kings Mountain, North Carolina," purchased with bonds bought by citizens of the Best Town in The State, latest model of this famous high altitude, daylight precision bomber which is operating in war theatres throughout the world. The Boeing Flying Fortress has four engines and a wing span of approximately 194 feet. It has a top speed well in excess of 300 miles an hour, carries a bomb load up to ten tons, has a service ceiling considerably above 35,000 feet, is heavily armed and is capable of operating over a long range. Chairman of the Bond Drive J. R. Davis hopes this bomber will be an inspiration to citizens to exceed the goal in the 3rd Bond Drive.
