CROOK-BOWLING

The Youth Avenue Baptist church in Columbus, Ohio, was the setting Saturday afternoon at four o'clock for the wedding of Miss Marjorie Lee Bowling and Technical Sergeant Robert Cecil Crook. The Rev. Harry G. Ford, pastor of the church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Tall baskets of white gladioli against a background of greenery and seven branched candelabra with white cathedral tapers flanked the altar where the vows were spoken.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Allen McManagal, organist, played, "The Lord's Prayer." The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used for the processional, and the Wedding March from A Midsummer Night's Dream, for the recessional. While the vows were spoken, Ecce Homo was softly played.

The couple entered the church together unattended. The bride had chosen for her wedding dress an ensemble of aqua crepe with three-quarter length sleeves and accessories of tartan. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls which was a gift to the groom. At her shoulder was a white, purple threaded orchid.

Mrs. Crook is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Covington Bowling. She is a graduate of Shelby high school and Blanton's Business College, Asheville. Until her marriage she was employed at the Farm Security Administration offices in Shelby.

ILL IN HOSPITAL

Mr. G. F. Hambricht of Clover knows to his friends in Kings Mountain as "Bud" Hambricht, is seriously ill in the York County Hospital, Rock Hill, S. C. and will undergo an operation today, it is thought.

Mr. Hambricht was a former Kings Mountain postmaster and has many friends here who will regret to hear of his critical condition.
