Books Are Lighthouses On The Sea Of Time

Nations are war necessitate for safety Lighthouses along the coast to be dim but this is no season to cast a shadow of indifference to the shelves of the Grammar School Library. In giving children the greatest gifts, little children, knowledge, understanding and pleasure through printed stories.

It's true, essential books for required course of study are provided, but how dry and dull they become without supplementary library books to sharpen the wits and provide excellent entertainment for leisure hours.

War also, has dimmed the privilege of traveling even if one could afford it, but books are means of reaching every part of the world through stories of the past and of the present to everyone.

Watch for the date with "The Critic"

The Fine Arts Department of the Women's Club, assisted by the P. T. A., urge every parent and patron of the best town in the State to support the movement on foot—a one-act comedy entitled "The Critic," by Val Clark to be presented at Central School in the near future. That the light through books might shine forth for the advantage of every child.

"The Critic" is a play within a play. Full of real drama. Characters are chosen from the audience, then the fun starts. You've never seen anything like it! You will agree, the book you represent by your attendance was well worth the time and money invested. Supporting schools of today build future citizens for tomorrow.

Why were you asked to buy War Bonds—because you are vitally interested in what War Bonds stand for: LIFE.

Why are you asked to help buy books for the Grammar School Library—because you are interested in what they represent: LIFE.

Do you feel "left out of it"?

Are YOU missing the chance to share in this war—missing an experience you'd value all your life?

Right now, in the WAC, you could be doing a vital Army job. You could be getting valuable training, meeting new people, seeing new places while serving your country.

BONDS OVER AMERICA

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty."
Thomas Jefferson, author of these words, left a monument to freedom, the University of Virginia at Charlottesville.

In Europe one of the oldest seats of learning is the University of Prague in (Czechoslovakia) founded in 1348. It was seized by the Nazis and now only Nazi themes of a super-race are taught.
