To the People of this Community

YOU CAN AFFORD IT

You can afford to buy Extra War Bonds during this Fourth War Loan Drive.

Everyone in this community knows incomes are higher than ever before—that both workers and farmers have more cash than ever before. Everyone knows that more than one member of hundreds of families are income earners—and everyone knows that increases in wages and salaries have far outstripped rising prices, and increased taxes. You can afford to buy Extra War Bonds.

As a matter of fact, you can't afford NOT to buy Extra War Bonds. If you spend your money for needless, scarce goods, you are increasing prices—if you want to help win the war you can't afford NOT to buy War Bonds. If you want to help that boy in the service, you can't afford NOT to buy Extra Bonds and if you want a good education investment for your own future security, you can't afford NOT to buy Extra War Bonds.

Don't just do the expected—buy All the Bonds you can.

THE EDITOR.

THE MASTER BLACKSMITH

He beats us out upon the anvil of the days
And tempers us in strange and secret ways
He beats us in the passions and the joys
And happiness of life—such fire employs.
Then cools us in the sorrow at the pain
Heats us and cools—then cools again.
Till if the iron be good, He makes us men.
Or if the iron be poor, He scrapes us then
Perchance to try again another day
To temper in some surer, sterner way.

SCOUT OATH
On my honor I will do my best;
To do my duty to God and my Country.
And to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong,
Mentally awake, and morally straight."

DEBTS OF GRATITUDE
There are other debts than monetary debts. There are debts of gratitude. Only with gratitude can we pay Beethoven for his symphonies Mendelssohn for his sonatas. Mozart for his requiems. Handel for his anthems. Watts for his hymns.

Only with gratitude can we pay the intrepid pioneers, both Puritan and Cavalier, for clearing the wilderness, making it habitable, and laying so well the foundations for a Christian society.

Only with gratitude can we pay Edison, Morse, Bell, Stearns, Curtis, and the long long line of dreamers and inventors who have added so abundantly to the joy and comfort of living.

Only with gratitude can we pay Pasteur, Simpson, Lister, Cabot and that great company of physicians and scientists whose faithful service has conquered disease, relieved pain, and added years to the span of human life. Only with gratitude can we pay.

We can pay as Totley is reported to have paid. A famine was on in the land. A beggar on a street corner reached out his hand for a coin. Russia's great man stopped, searched his pockets for a coin, he had none. With genuine sorrow he said to the beggar: "Do not be angry with me, my brother. I have nothing with me." The beggar's face lighted up as he replied, "But you called me brother—that is a great gift."—Bruce S. Wright.

HERE AND THERE

Errors in newspapers do all sorts of things. For example last week, Linotype operator Gene Mathews, gave Mrs. Fred Finger a daughter-in-law. Gene meant to get Mrs. Fred Wright, Jr., had returned from Florida where she had been with her husband, but he met Mrs. Fred Finger, Jr.

It has been brought to the attention of the writer of Here and There that we have a citizen of Kings Mountain who celebrated her 90th birthday last Dec. 20th. So we wish to extend a belated happy birthday to Mrs. L. L. Parrish of Piedmont Ave. and if we had known about it in time, we would have sent a pretty birthday card.

We have a letter in this issue of The Herald from a Kings Mountain soldier that I would like for every subscriber to read. It's one of the best letters I have ever read. The writer, Captain Philip Padgett, sincerely tells very vividly from a doctor's viewpoint, what the boys "over there" go through. Read his letter and then buy an extra bond.

Glee Bridges almost got himself into the army Tuesday morning. He was present to see the large group leave for pre-induction examinations, when Chairman of the Draft Board, Paul Mauney, spied him, and called his name. Glee stepped into line, but he was too old to make the grade, being a veteran of the last war. He was discarded before he had an opportunity to board the bus.

Mrs. Harmon Receives Many Birthday Greetings

Mrs. Mary Harmon, who celebrated her 84th birthday Tuesday, was the recipient of many beautiful cards, flowers and gifts. The elderly citizen of the Best Town in the State, was most appreciative of the many remembrances she received, which made for her one of the happiest birthdays out of the many she has observed. She asked The Herald to express her sincere thanks to everyone who thought of her and she wished for them that they too could celebrate their 84th birthday and experience the happiness she receives from being remembered in so many nice ways.

WAR BONDS will preserve and protect the American way.

NEGRO NEWS

By Mrs. Jessie G. Costner

Miss Nell Couper and Mr. M. Lee of Charlotte spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. James Whiteside on Tracy street. Mr. Sylvester Williams of China Grove, N.
