A Legionnaire's Open Letter To MR. CHERRY

Kings Mountain, North Carolina
May 6, 1944

Mr. Gregg Cherry,
Six Walter Hotel,
Raleigh, North Carolina.

Dear Mr. Cherry:

I see from the Legion News issue of February, 1944, that the Past Commanders of your local post of the American Legion have addressed "An Open Letter to War Veterans of North Carolina" in your behalf. Well, this is an open letter to you from a fellow legionnaire.

I was present at the Convention of the American Legion held at Winston-Salem when Itimous Valentine of Spring Hope proposed and backed a resolution to change the Legion constitution to restrict certain voting privileges of Past Commanders of the Legion, of which you were one. You took the floor to speak against the resolution, and by way of belittling its sponsorship, you said:

"And who is this Itimous Valentine? Nothing but a Private! And where (or what) is Spring Hope? . . . This proposal is backed only by the little and inconsequential posts of the State."

The inference was clear: "Those who proposed the resolution were little and inconsequential legionnaires and who were we little fellows to set ourselves up against the high and mighty head men in the Legion?"

A member of the Spring Hope Post, in deep resentment at the slurs you cast upon his home town and fellow-legionnaires and other small posts, got up in the back of the hall and denounced your sarcastic remarks all the way up the aisle to his seat. The Convention voted you down and carried the now famous Valentine Resolution by an overwhelming majority.

This incident is significant—not because of any embarrassment to Valentine resulting from your condescending and belittling language, but because it clearly indicates your attitude to those, in or out of the Legion, whom you think are "little and inconsequential."

Valentine, now a Lieutenant-Colonel serving overseas in the second war, in my humble opinion, would be deeply disappointed if you were made Governor of North Carolina. Under military rules he is not permitted to even express an opinion, while you over here are doing all you can to drag the Legion—his Legion and ours—into politics, in plain violation of the Legion's National and State Constitutions, and in violation of the oath you took to uphold it. There are hundreds of legionnaires in North Carolina who will recall the above incident and who still resent it, because they know that this is a clear indication of your attitude toward all people whom you consider to be beneath you.

Incidentally, it is difficult to see why you should expect Legion support, since it is wevy known that you did not support the only Legionnaire running in the 1936 Primary.

There are many of us who hope you will not be chosen to "Lead it" over us so-called "little and inconsequential" people, and because we know that this is exactly what you would do, we shall vote for Ralph McDonald for Governor. We know that he will be a friend to all veterans, whether in or out of the Legion, and whether they are "head men" or are "small and inconsequential" legionnaires.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) MARVIN S. REVEL
