We have many thing in America a be proud of. Your I'. S. Postaf service. It's one of the greatest pos-" services in t - world. When it uns started in 1 9 the postal rates were proposed to Congress by the first postmanter - orest, Named Orgood. Singles letters were to be enrried 20 miles for six cents, 60 miles 8 crats, 460 mile: 25 cents, and on as far as the service went. These rates were for a single sheet. If two sheets were used it was twice the price. General Organd asked Congres for $300 for the reut of the go post office. Today the postal service has nearly 47,000 post offices, 10,000 mail carriers and a 2 cents will carry a letter half around the world so don't kick your sertman if
