PATRIOTISM
 He serves his country Who lives pure life and loathes right and wrong.

And walks straight paths however others stray.

And leaves his sons, as uttermost bequest.

A stainless record which all men may read;

This is the better way.

No drop but serves the slowly lift ing tide;

No dew but has an errand to some flower;

No smallest star but sheds some helpful ray.

And man by man, each helping all the rest.

Make the firm bulwark of the country's power;

There is no better way.

—Susan Coolidge.

CHEERFUL TEMPER
 A cheerful temper, joined with innocence, will make beauty attractive, knowledge delightful, and wit good natured. It will lighten sickness, poverty and affliction, convert ignorance into an amiable simplicity, and render deformity itself agreeable.—Addison.

AND SOME WOULD CHANGE OUR SYSTEM

In reviewing the record of production reported by the War Production Board up to May 25, last, the world has evidence of an industrial miracle wrought in the United States. B. M.
 Baruch puts the heart of the story in thirty three words: "The war has been a crucible for all the economic systems of the world, for our own, for Communism, Fascism, Nazism—all the others. And the American system has outproduced the world."

"BEARSKIN"

While Knute Rockne was catching at Notre Dame University, there began to appear in a South Bend paper every Friday morning a sports column signed by one "Bearskin," and it was a dandy. No one knew who "Bearskin" was and many a Notre Dame football player would have given a lot to get his hands on him, because once a week Bearskin wrote the meanest, nastiest, most cruelest football column ever seen on a sports page.

First he would berate the team as a whole and then crisp various players. He seemed to have astonishing inside dope. He knew the lay out, the ones who kept coughing and who read their clippings, the training breaks, the ladies' men. He called such spots a spade.

A player would come on the field for practice with a Bearskin clipping in his fingers, reading mad. Rockne would always sympathize with the boy, and say, "Teh,teh,teh! A follow oughtn't to be allowed to write things like that. Go on out there and show him it isn't true."

Rockne, of course, was Bearskin.
 His column was an invaluable advantage for too much publicity, and was
 Creative Thought.

RETAILERS CARRY ON

The Hon. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, in discussing problems that the retail stores of the nation face in supply the consumer under a multitude of restrictions, said:

"I believe there is no other group of Americans more concerned with the future of America than are the retail merchants. These retailers believe in the equality of opportunity, in justice administered impartially.
 They want to live and let live in an atmosphere of freedom. . . . The retailers of America will spare no effort to win the war and to restore and recover the principles and the philosophy of life and government that have made America great."

Congressman Wiley pointed out that difficult as has been the experience of retailers under the OPA, they have upheld continuation of the Price Control Act as a war necessity. "However, it could have been better administered. . . . As soon as the war ceases, and probably before, government restrictions and interference must be reduced to a minimum."

CARE OF THAMES

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for the kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother and for the beautiful floral offerings. May God bless each and everyone of you.

NEWS AND VIEWS
 Raymond E. Lynch

As I had quite a bit of favorable comment on the "All-Body" Column last week I'll try an "All-Servicemen's" item and then this issue, Mrs. J. E. Hill suggested by The Herald office to subscribe for the paper to be sent to her two sons, Pfc. Herman Hill who is in France and Pfc. Charles Hill who is recuperating after being wounded in Italy. She reports that the army mail is finding her some mighty well, as Herman received service weighing 150 pounds and now tips the scales at 185 and Charles became a soldier weighing 150 pounds and now weighing 185 pounds.

Rob Morrison came by the office to show me a letter he had received from his son, Lt. Luther Morrison who has been on duty in the South Pacific. The unusual thing about the letter was that it was a left-handed job as Luther's right hand had been wounded.
 Even though the letter was short and rather scribbly, it was a big relief to the parents.

I had a pleasant visit Monday afternoon with Staff Sergeant Robert J. Lynn, who arrived the day before after serving almost three years in Panama. The Kings Mountain Sergeant related in a most interesting manner some of his experiences during his 24 months in the Caribbean area. He made the trip back home by boat from Panama to the West Coast, and then by train to the East Coast in the States. He told me on Christmas Day he was out in the jungle with orchids all around him, but that he had much rather been at home minus the exquisite flowers. By the way Sgt. Lynn was the fellow who wrote me a letter raking me over the coals for my criticism of General Patton.

CHILDREN FOUND NOT GUILTY

After only 25 minutes of deliberation a Cleveland Superior court jury yesterday afternoon found James Felix Children not guilty of either second degree murder or manslaughter in connection with the death of Luther Carrigan, whose lifeless body was found by the Southern Railway tracks near the Gaston county line last March.

Two other defendants in the same death case, Pauline Children, wife of Children and Lawrence Cobb, companion on a drinking party, were released when the state took a nol pro in each instance.

Evidence offered by the state in the trial which started Tuesday afternoon tended to show that Carrigan, Children and his wife and Cobb had all been drinking together at a beer stand near where the body was found. Children told Cobb, according to Cobb's testimony, that he had cut his wife and Carrigan in an immoral act that he had pulled out his knife and commenced to stab him; that Carrigan fell down in a hole and that he picked up a large rock and threw it at Carrigan.
 Children did not take the stand himself nor did the defense put on any other testimony.

 Post-War Married Life

A psychologist offers some mighty sensible advice to husbands and wives separated by war. He believes "lack of television" rather than loss of affection is most likely to cause postwar marriage difficulties.

She will have both wonderful pleasure of her post-war life will be when her husband goes back.
 And the dream of evening with her by the fire with a glass of no problems or worries.

Of course, it isn't true that just
