Robert J. Lynn To Be Re-Assigned

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — T-3 Robert J. Lynn, 24, of Shelby, N. C., returned from service outside the continental United States, now is being processed through the Army Air Force Redistribution Station No. 2 in Miami Beach, where his next assignment will be determined.

This is one of the Redistribution Stations within the AAF Personnel Distribution Command. At an AAF Redistribution Station, AAF returns from theaters of operation. It is examined by specially selected medical and classification officers whose joint findings are used in recommending new assignments. Some of the AAF Redistribution program is designation of each man to duty for which he is best fitted. Officers live at a Redistribution Station under conditions that encourage natural response to processing, the great or part of their two-week stay being devoted to rest and recreation.

AAF personnel, enlisted men and officers alike, are assigned to a Redistribution Station upon their return to the United States, but do not report to the station until completing a furlough or leave of three weeks.

Sergeant Lynn was a supply sergeant during 24 months in the Caribbean area. His wife, Valerie, resides at 1104 Morgan street in Shelby, and his father, R. S., at 219 Cleveland avenue in Kings Mountain. Sergeant Lynn attended Kings Mountain High School.

RANDOM NOTES

by Mrs. A. H. Patterson (Cont'd from Society page)

News and heard on my rounds: A delicious devil's food cake, a gift from Mattie Howard to a neighbor boy, home from camp. — Bill Howard getting his stable ready for the reception of a pony, he hopes will arrive from Tennessee today. — Aunt Nancy Adams, seated on curb in front of "Kings Mountain's Honor Roll" notifying her handkerchief and county her doll. — A colored soldier looking for his name on the "Honor Roll". — Pretty Martha Sue Dyer, patiently and smilingly greeting her continuous line of patrons at the post office window. — A member of U. S. Navy men and one chaplain, war shipping at their home church. — Handsome Lt. Luther Morrison with background and walking up the street with Mrs. Morrison. — Two attractive young women talking brightly. — Best one here. — Mrs. J. W. Moore, Jr., with their pretty young ones at the Kiwanis picnic. — Postmaster Turner of Charlotte, speaking to all friends at picnic. — Kings Mountain and Gastonia doctors eating too much. — Men at the Red Cross, a number, though far too few, day after day, doing their bit. — Some how you keep worrying about the others, when you think of all-important work of handiwork making. — It really is surprising the thousands of handiwork that are folded each week and shipped away and yet so few are having that great satisfaction and joy that comes from having a part in something so worthwhile.
