ENTERTAIN AT CAKE CUTTING

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis entertained informally at a cake-cutting at their home on Mountain street Saturday night having as their guests, the Washburn-Davis bridal party, close relatives of the bride and bridegroom, Rev. J. W. Ruttle and Dr. Zeno Wall, of Shelby.

The bride is a niece of Mr. Davis and her marriage to Lt. Wilfred V. Washburn, of Shelby and Camp Robinson, Little Rock, Ark., took place at the bride's home church, New Hope Baptist, at Earl, Sunday night.

The Davis home was arranged throughout with roses, gladioli and zinnias. In the dining room the bridal motif white and green prevailed. The table was spread with an imported lace cover and had for its center decoration a lovely decorated three-tiered wedding cake from which tokens and fortunes in tiny bags of rice, tied with narrow white ribbon, extended. A shower of white flowers was suspended from the chandelier. Lighted white tapers completed the appointments.

The cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom, followed by members of the bridal party and other guests and served with ices, mints, nuts and punch. Mimosas, Collins and Jo Keeter, school mates of the bride, assisted in serving.

On arrival the guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Davis.
