MISS L. B. GOODEE TO HAVE MEETING

The American Home Department of the Senior Women's Club will meet Friday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. B. Goodee. Mrs. Aubrey Manney has charge of the program. Mrs. W. W. Tolleson club chairman, will preside.

All members are urged to come.

MEMBERS OF JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB

The Junior Women's Club met in regular session at the club house Monday night with Mrs. Lyndon Parton and Mrs. Jiles Cornwell as hostesses.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. John Hoyle. Plans for sponsoring a kindergarten were discussed and the president appointed the executive board as a committee to work on the project. Mrs. R. N. Baird met with the club and gave the members suggestions concerning the starting and operation of a kindergarten.

Mrs. Jacob Cooper and Mrs. W. K. Manney, Jr., have reports on the District meeting held at Boiling Springs last Friday.

The club voted to give the Senior Club a $25 war bond to be used for the purchase of a firebox set for the club lounge, when sets are again available.

Members bought war savings stamps for the club's stamp book, these to be used for the purchase of a $100 War Bond.

Plans were made for entertaining new members of the City School faculty at the next meeting.

Three new members, Mrs. Ethel Elkins, Mrs. Grace Peeler and Mrs. William Lawrence Manney were enrolled at this meeting.

After the business session the hostesses served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed.

CIRCLE MEET

Mrs. Fred Wright was hostess to members of Circle Number 2 of Central Methodist church at her home on Gold street Monday afternoon, with fifteen members present.

Mr. H. T. Fulton conducted the devotional service and Mrs. J. H. Arthur had charge of the business session. Plans were made for serving dinner for the Boy Scout Executive meeting Friday night.

Mrs. H. H. Biner had charge of the program taken from the periodical, The Methodist Woman.
