

"...Sorta' look out for my kid sister
till I get back, will ya'?"

GET THIS RIGHT—she's a good girl. She walks straight and proud and unafraid, holding her head up, only . . .

She's walking into a different world, a grown-up world. These are tough times for kids her age. Most of the boys she knew have left town, have gone to war. There aren't so many parties, clubs, and games anymore. No, but there are still plenty of the same old ugly, dangerous things for kids to do. War makes them look different. Exciting. Glamorous. Even patriotic.

See how good kids drift into juvenile delinquency?

Please . . . don't let it happen to my sister. Sorta' look out for her till I get back.

There are more children who need your help more than ever before.

They need that help now . . . Visiting Nurse Service, Family and Child Welfare Work, Recreation, Hospital and Clinic Services . . .
