REV. AND MRS. BYRON KEETER

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Keeter entertained members of the Board of Deacons of the First Baptist Church and their wives at a buffet supper Friday evening in honor of Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Pinnix. The Keeter home on Cleveland avenue was attractively decorated for the occasion.

Miss Rachel McClain and Eunice Keeter assisted the hosts. Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Tague were invited guests.

ENTERTAIN AT CAKE CUTTING

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Keeter entertained members of the Snow Mauney bridal party and other guests at a cake cutting at their home last Saturday night.

The home was arranged throughout with chrysanthemums and roses.

In the dining room the bridal set of white and green was observed. The dining table was spread with a lace cover and centered with a lovely, three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom standing under an arch of orange blossoms. The cake was laid in white with decorations of tiny valley lilies and convolvulus flowers attached to white ribbon streamers for each guest. Green candles completed the table appointments.

Mrs. C. E. Neisler, seated at the table, served green sherbet from an antique silver punch bowl and was assisted by Mrs. Fleming Ramsey. Sifted cake was passed by Miss Patty Anne Neisler and Miss Patty Fay Overton, of Shelby.

Guests included the bridal party, members of their families and the following from out-of-town: Miss Claudia McMillan of Greensboro, Miss Ruth Bunch of Lumberton, Miss Janet Jaeger of Florence, B. C. Lawrence Patrick of Quantico, Va. Miss Betty Patrick, student at Agnes Scott and Miss Nancy Nichols, student at W. C. T. N. C., Greensboro.

WALKER-BURNS

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walker of Horry announce the marriage of their daughter, Dolores, to E. L. Burns, Jr. of High Shoals on Nov. 5 at Gaffney, S. C. The ceremony was performed by Roy C. Cook. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hopinette accompanied the couple.

SNOW-MAURNEY VOWS ARE SPOKEN

In a ceremony of beauty and simplicity Miss Alice Betty Mauney and Lieutenant Richard Maynard Snow were married in the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. F. D. Patrick, the bride's pastor, officiated.

The altar was arranged with ferns and white gladioli flanked on the sides by brass candelabra holding cathedral tapers.

Pews for the seating of relatives and special guests were marked with bouquets of white chrysanthemums tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Betty Patrick, wearing white with a shoulder corsage of red roses, was at the organ. Her program of nuptial music included "Evening Star," "O Perfect Love," "Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "I Love You Truly."

E. B. Harris, Jr., of Hamlet, N. C., cousin of the bride, sang "Blessed" by Handel, and "At Dawning" by Cadman. The Wedding March from Lohengrin was played for the professionals and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional.

Ushers were Jack Mauney, brother of the bride, C. E. Neisler, 2nd, Charles Moss, Jr., and Paul Neisler, Jr., all of Kings Mountain.

Mr. A. G. Snow of Mooresville was best man.

Miss Sue Rudolph, of Charlotte and Kings Mountain, cousin of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a graceful gown of green satin with full net over skirt and fashioned with tight fitted bodice, buttoned in back with satin covered buttons. Her head dress was of net caught with flowers and she carried an arm bouquet of orange chrysanthemums.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Pauline Mauney, sister of the bride and Miss Mauney were pink satin with net over skirt and a white chrysanthemum adorned her hair. Miss Harris wore blue tulle combined with net, a chrysanthemum hair adornment and each carried an arm bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums.

The ring bearer was Fleming Mauney, young brother of the bride, wearing a white suit, who carried the ring on a satin pillow.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Paul Mauney, was unusually lovely in her wedding gown of heavy white tulle fashioned with full skirt and train. The modest but featured a yoke inset of net and lace and was caught in the back with a row of tiny satin covered buttons. The long sleeve ending with lace trim over the hand. Her tiered veil of bridal illusion fell from a band of tiny orange chrysanthemums and she carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor which was arranged with white daisy chrysanthemums.

The receiving line was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauney, the latter wearing a black costume trimmed with black sequins and black hat; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Snow, Mrs. Snow wearing black crepe with white lace collar and black accessories; the bride and bridegroom and other members of the bridal party.

The registrar was kept by Miss Nancy Nichols of Kings Mountain. Misses Claudia McMillan and Ruth Ferguson of Greensboro, Miss Betty Lambert of Springfield, Mass., and Miss Mamie Auldington of Franklin, N. C.

The bride is an attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauney of this place. She received her education in the Kings Mountain schools and Woman's College University of North Carolina at Greensboro where she is in her senior year.

The bride groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Snow of Kernersville, is a First Lieutenant in the United States Army Air Corps. He recently completed eighteen months of service in Panama, returning to the States for a few weeks stay.

After a wedding trip the bride will resume her college work and the bridegroom will leave for his post of duty. For traveling, the bride wore a smart gray suit with black hat and other accessories in black.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Harris, E. B. Harris, Jr., and Patricia Ann Harris of Hamlet; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsey and Mrs. Fleming Johnson of Gastonia; Mrs. Edith Jettan of Lincolnton, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Meagher of Shelby; Miss Ruth Branch of Lumberton; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Snow, Mary Alice Snow, and Terry Snow of Mooresville; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Snow, Miss Edna Snow, Miss Wynne Snow, Miss Barbara Jean Snow, Miss Lona Dean, Mr. Violet Knight, Miss Beaulie Knight and Miss Imogene Knight, all of Kernersville.

DINERS AT DINNER PARTY
Mrs. J. H. Arthur was hostess at a dinner party on last Saturday honoring her daughter, Miss Marian Arthur and Miss Beata Walker who were at home from Deans College, Greenville, Ga.

Chrysanthemums were used in decoration and a lovely three course dinner was served.

Covers were laid for Misses Marian Arthur, Beata Walker, Avis Mae War-

ick, Mary Ann Cross, Toots Gillespie and Jackie Falls.
