

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES: Home 371; Office 96 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON.

ENTERTAIN VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hayes and Mrs. Cera Hayes, mother of the former had as recent house guests, Mrs. F. E. Hayes and Mrs. Dan and Billy, of Silver Springs, Md., who were en route to San Francisco, Calif., to join Mrs. Hayes' husband, Lt. Comdr. Hayes, for the past two months in charge of the Fleet P. O. at that place. They also had as their guest, Herman Hayes of Tampa, Fla., who spent the week with his mother.

A number were invited in to see the visitors, among them being Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hayes, of the U. S. Navy, who recently returned to the state from England, Betty and John Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ledford, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ledford, and children, Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Bangardner and daughter, Bonnie Lee.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ware entertained members of the Little Theatre group and a few friends at their home last Thursday night, honoring Rev. Herman Fisher, who has contributed so much toward making a success of the Theatre production, and Mrs. Fisher on the eve of their departure for their new home.

The rooms were made most inviting with an arrangement of Yuletide decorations.

On arrival the guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. E. W. Neal poured tea and sandwiches and fancy cookies were served.

The dining table was spread with subscribed linen with lace inserts, and centered with an attractive floral piece, flanked by lighted candles, suggesting the holiday motif.

Four boys who have formerly assisted with plays given by the Theatre group and are now in the service were honored. These were Chas. Wash, Jr., James Thronberg, Bayne Williams, Jr., and I. Ben Goforth, Jr. and candles were lighted for them by Mrs. C. E. Wash, Mrs. Y. F. Thronberg, Mrs. A. H. Patterson and Mrs. I. B. Goforth, Jr.

Miss Mary Frances Reed in behalf of the Little Theatre, presented a gift to Rev. and Mrs. Fisher and favors were presented each guest by the hostess.

At the conclusion of a unique and enjoyable program, prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Fisher, who prayed especially for the boys in the Armed Forces.

HOLIDAY GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Griffin had as guests Christmas Day, Mrs. Griffin's father, Mr. B. W. Curfoss of Mocksville, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones, the latter, sister of Mrs. Griffin, Miss Margaret Jones, Mrs. Chas. Hatcher and small son, all of North Wilkesboro, Mr. Chas. Hatcher of Meridian, Miss.

The party were joined in Kings Mountain by Lt. Walter Jones, of the U. S. Army Air Corps who recently received his wings in Texas and was on his first visit home in two years.

Mr. Hatcher left Monday night on his return trip to Meridian.
