"Oh, Say, Can You See..."

On a spot of land jutting into the Patuxent river, just below Baltimore, stands star shaped Fort McHenry whose "Star Spangled Banner" prompted Francis Scott Key to write the words which became our national anthem.

There's another star shaped fort—old Fort Wood, that now serves as a support for the Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island in New York Harbor.

Sea Gulls Cry

In Salt Lake City is a memorial to sea gulls, by M. J. Mori, grandson of Brigham Young. It commemorates the sea gulls of 1941 that destroyed the pest of crickets appearing in the Great Salt Lake region.

Over the cliffs of Dover the sea gulls wheel and cry as isolated lockouts keep towns which in preparation for the Allied invasion. Far above them our bombers roar toward Germany daily.
